Dear Lois,

You have a lot of personality and spark - You make 'em fly when you lose your temper. I'd like to see you grow in gracefulness, poise, and charm til you're a "little lady"
instead of just a "little terror"!!
You've made this year fun and how about making your senior year
H.O. You'd better answer when I write.

Affectionately—

FACULTY

Behind a graduating class there is a faculty of faithful friends whose understanding guidance has contributed to the reality of Commencement. White Lake High School has heading its fine school system, Ralph Galer, Superintendent; Howard Schoof, Principal; and Mrs. Leona Buss head of the Science Department. Mrs. Leona Rauch is in charge of the English Department and has the fine Arts courses. Miss Lois Bates has the commercial subjects and the extra curricular activities. Mr. Schoof is the head of the History Department while Mr. Galer handles the mathematics and metal art courses.

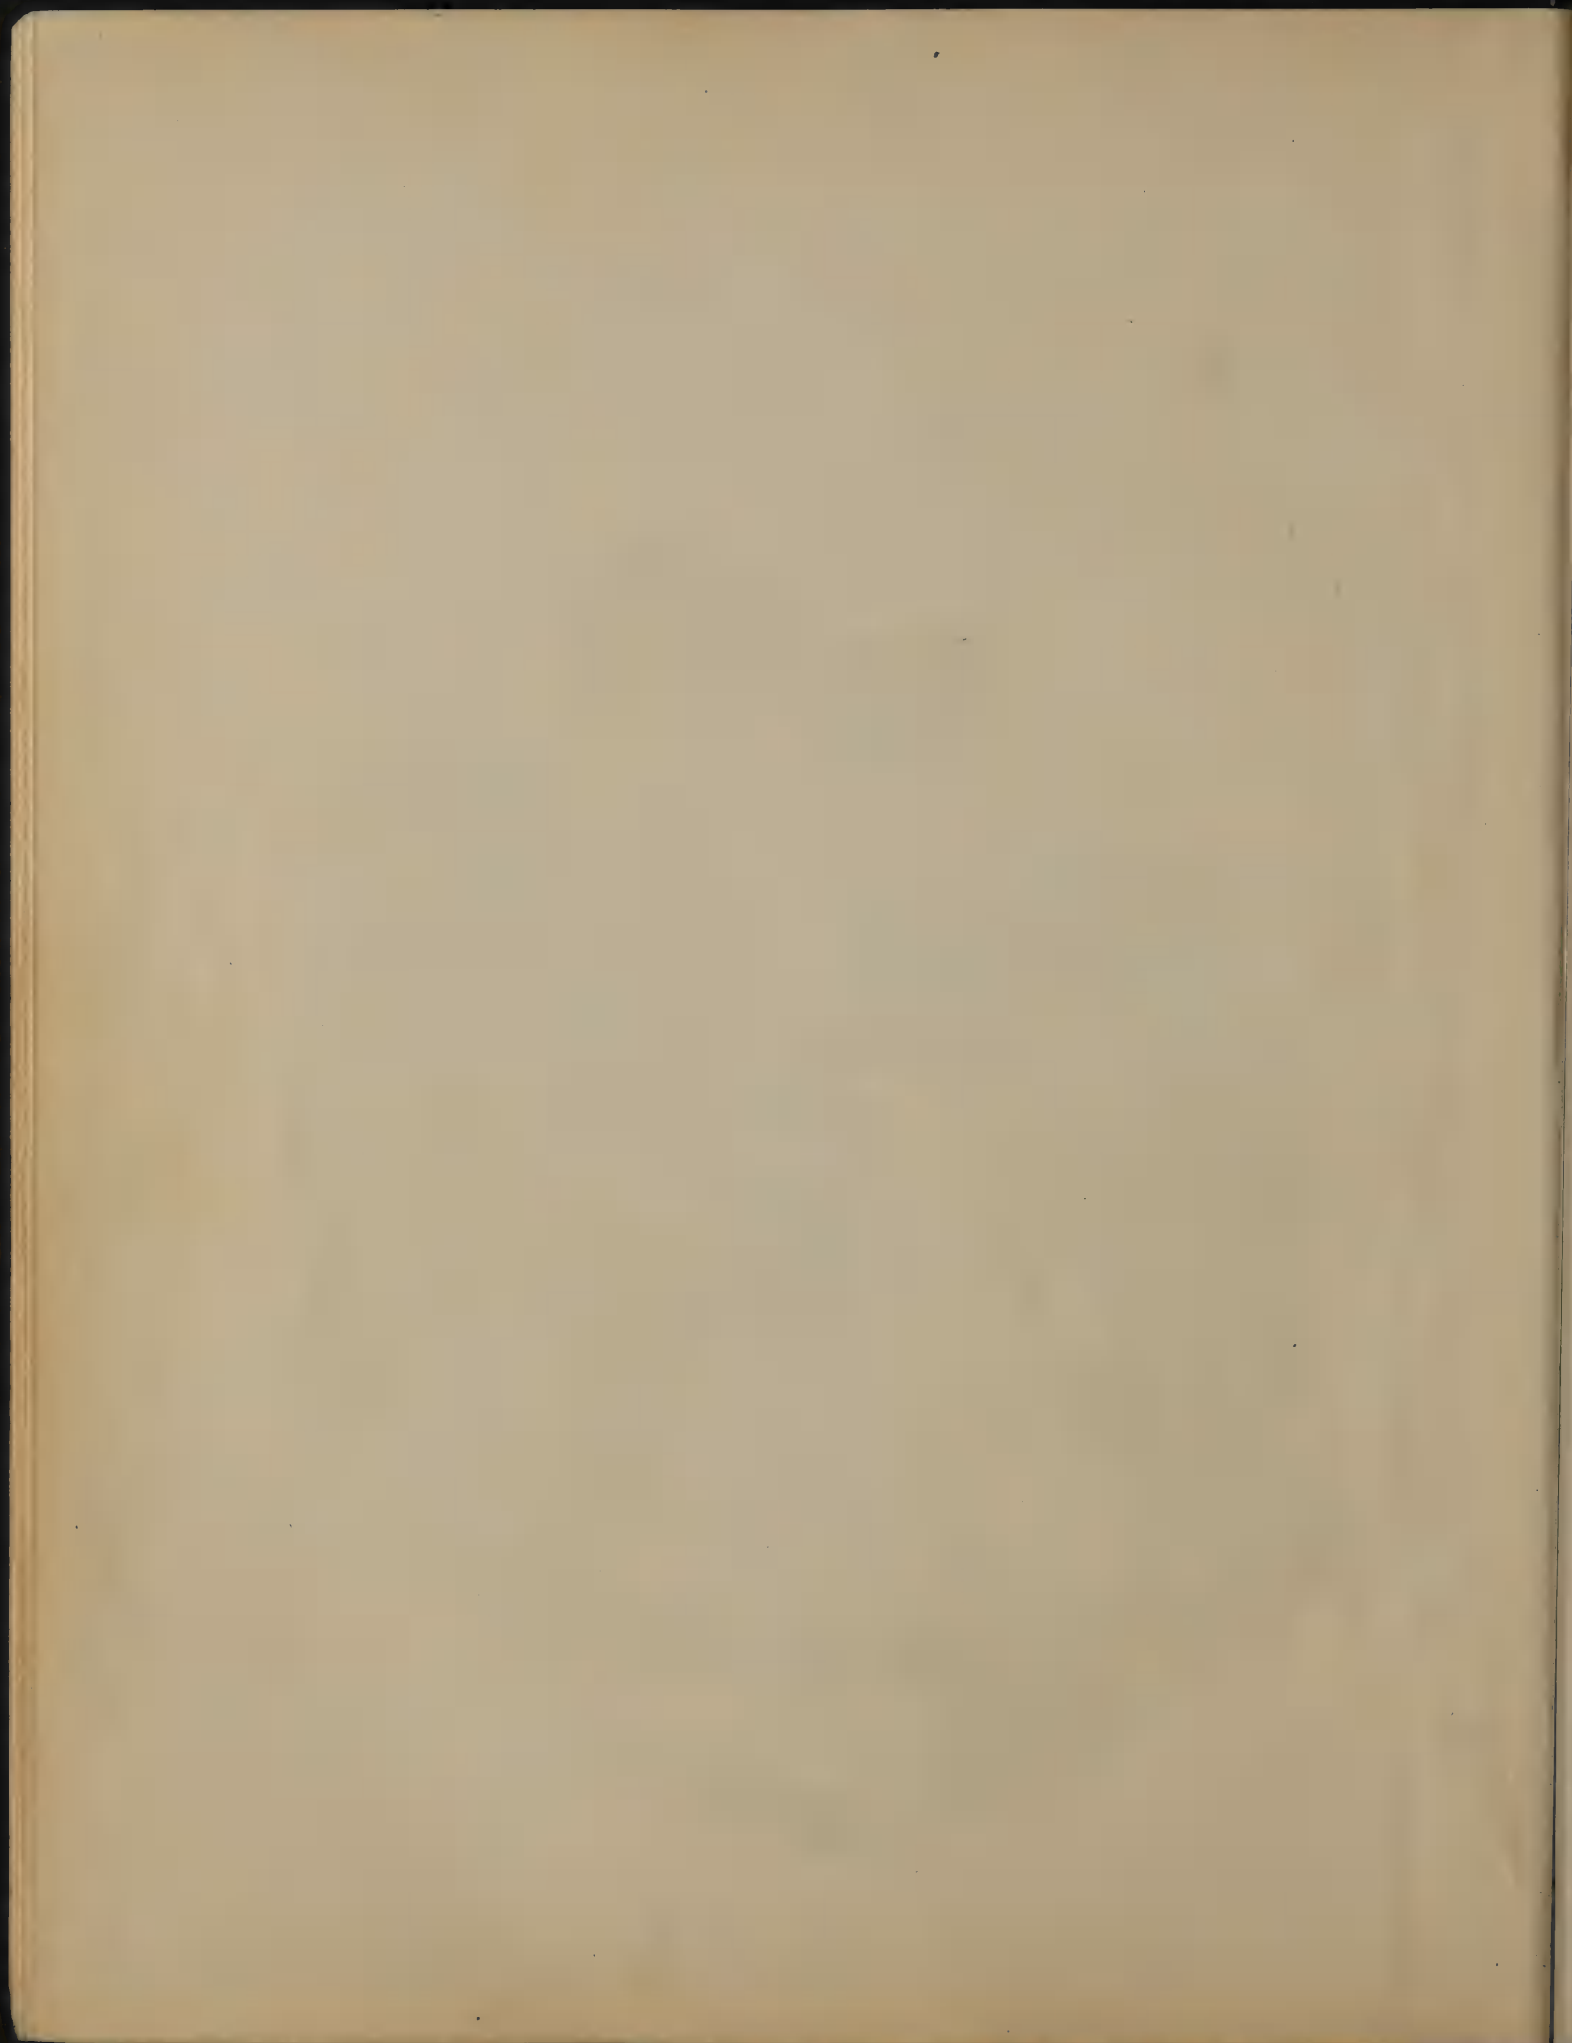

In the grades there are four capable instructors. Miss Bernice Heezen has charge of the first and second graders; Miss Josephine Dunn teaches the third and fourth graders; Miss Margery Rankin directs the work of the fifth and sixth graders; and Miss Alice Mendel is the teacher in charge of the seventh and eighth grades.

Mr. Joseph Haines has performed his duties as janitor faithfully this year and continues to be the friend of all the students.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

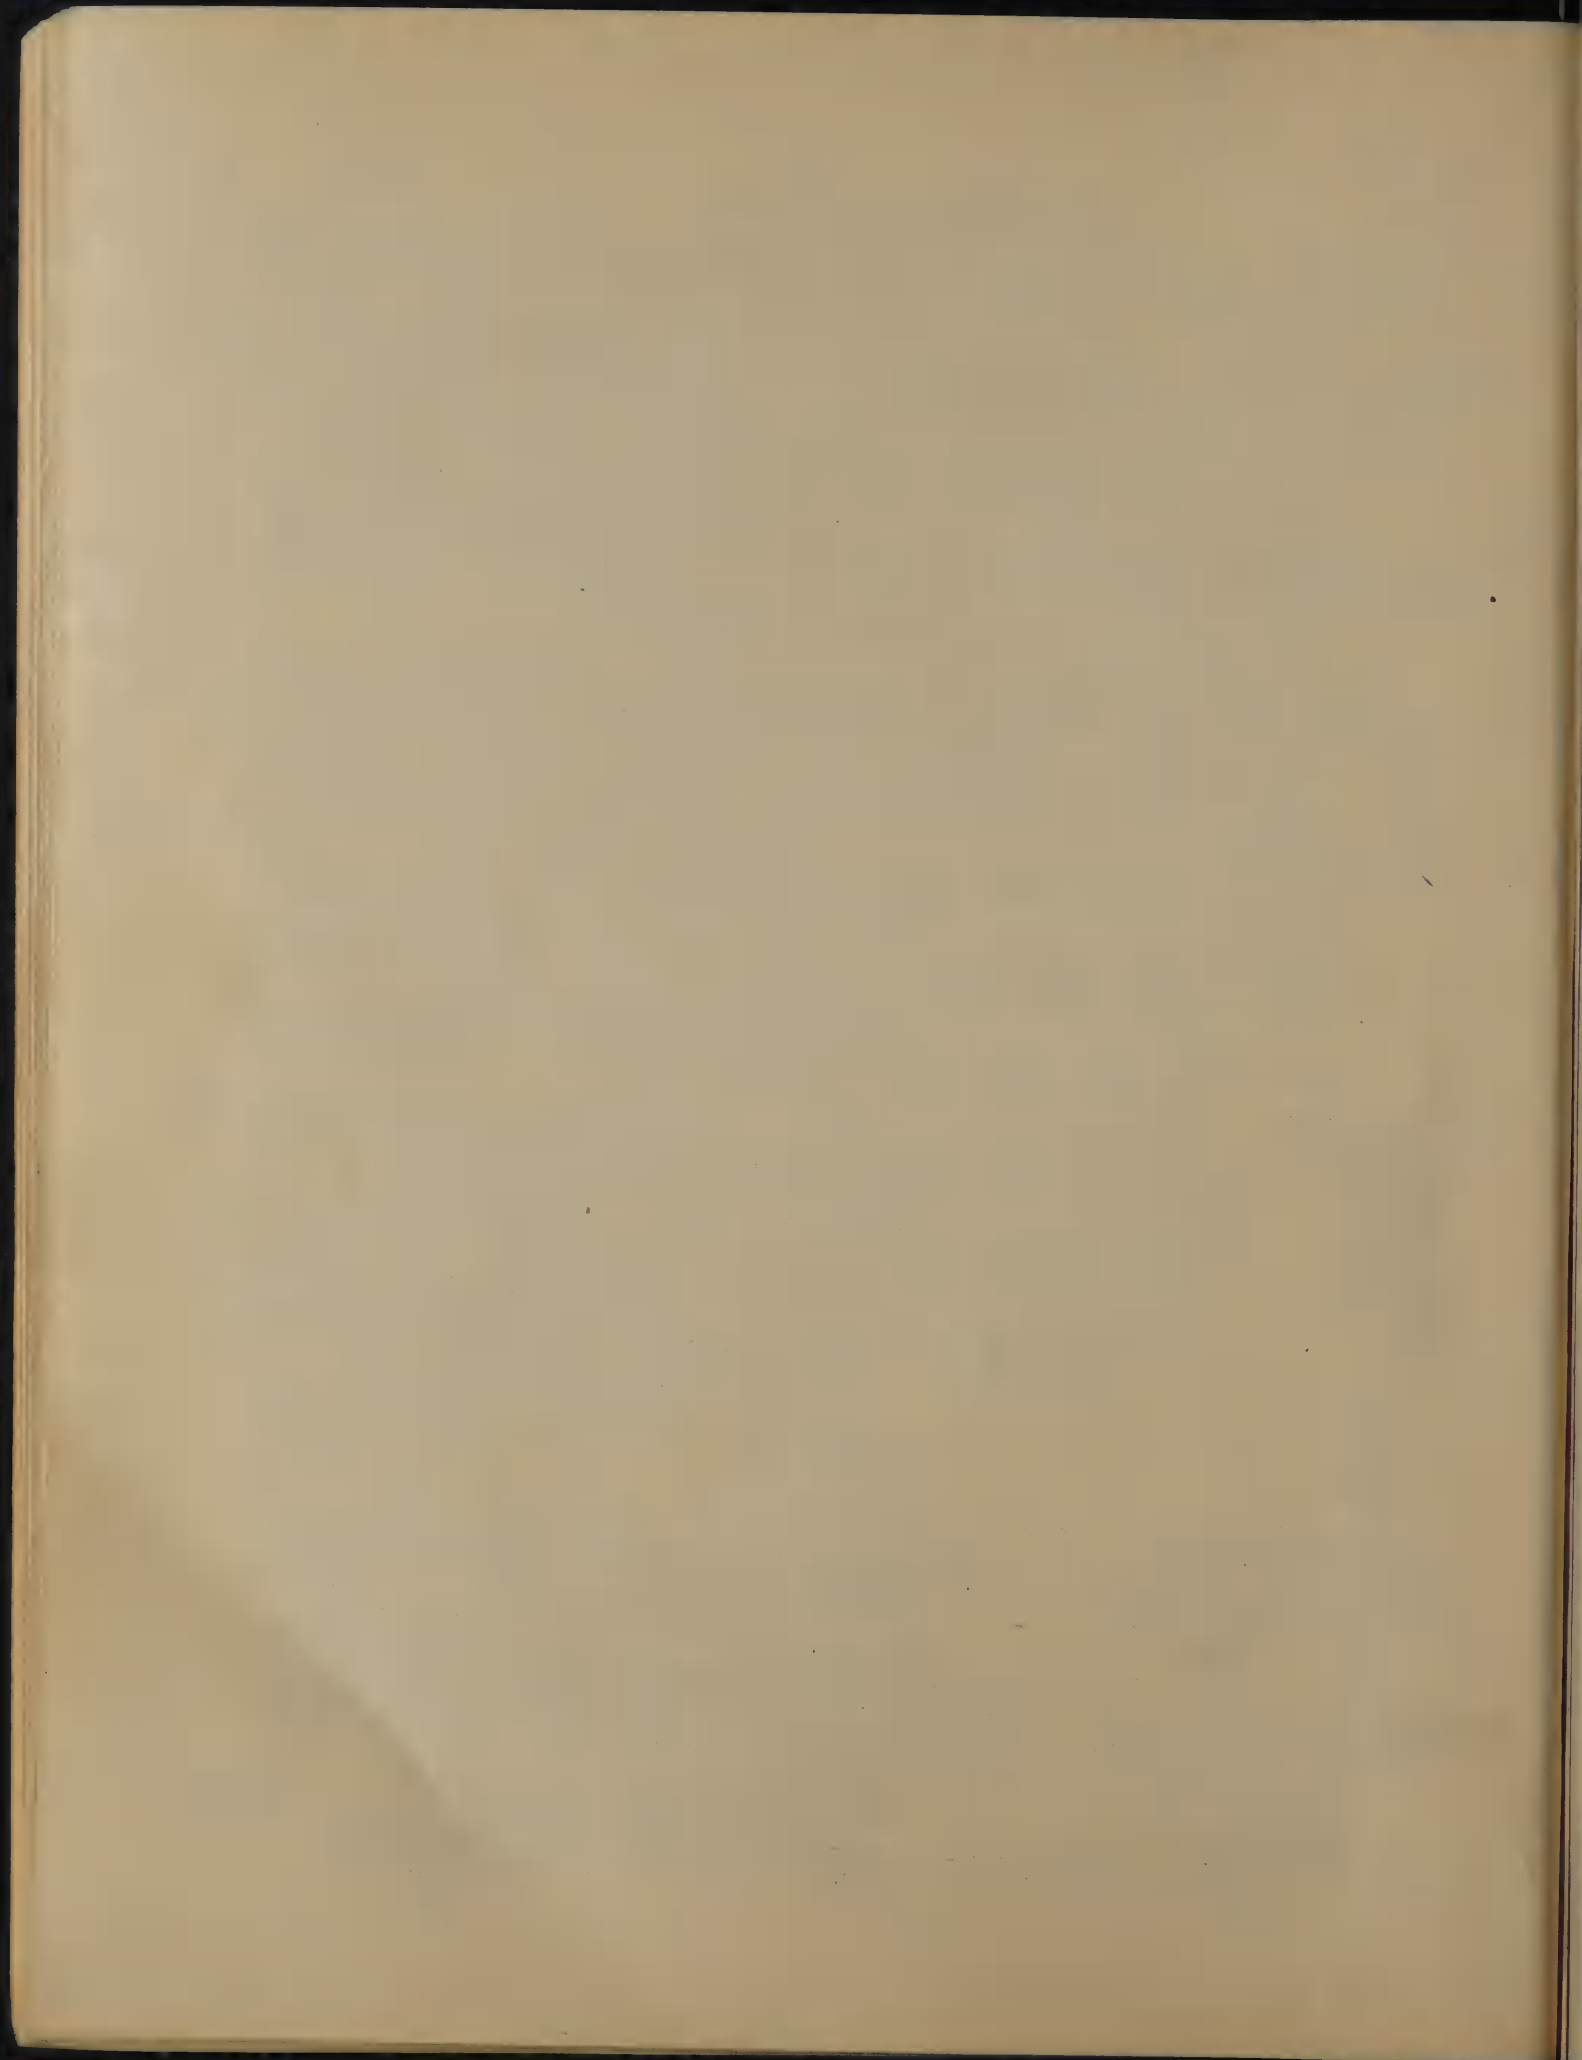

Monday morning, September 6, 1943, twenty-five green and wary Freshmen walked meekly into the high-school assembly expecting all manner of treatment. They were: Ruth Beutner, Marjorie Bruggeman, June Dyer, William Frandsen, Germaine Gales, Doris Getty, Henry Goepfert, Loren Haines, Anthony Hanten, Theodore Hanten, Margaret Hettinger, Margaret Hoffman, Delos Hopkins, Robert Johnson, Jakie Martin, Marlys Miller, Lucille Moe, Lola Mae Mohnen, Evelyn Moseman, John Nielsen, Norma Peters, Dorothy Root, Donna Steffen, Theodore Schone, Dorothy Schuman. During our second week we suffered untold agonies at the hand of our upper classmen. In our Freshman year Robert Johnson, Marlys Miller, Jakie Martin, Dorothy Root, Evelyn Moseman dropped out and Dorothy Root and Evelyn Moseman continued their schooling elsewhere. Doris became cheerleader and Anthony out of pure coincidence became one of the first ten on the basketball team. Those that took band during this year were: Delos, Teddy S. and Ruth. At the end of the year we went to Mitchell for our picnic.

In our Sophomore year William (Billy) left us to join the army and Harold Nightingale joined us to make a total of twenty intelligent looking pupils. This was the year we put on our one act play entitled "Kidnapping Betty". Those that were in it were: Germaine, Teddy S., Delos, Harold, Dorothy S., Doris, and Lucille. It was a big success. There was only one student that took up Declamation this year, Ruth. Those that were in band this year were: Delos, Donna, Lola Mae, Dorothy S., Margaret Hettinger, Ruth, and Lucille. Scholastic honors went to Germaine, Margaret Hettinger, and Lucille. Teddy S., Loren, and Anthony were members of the Athletic Association. Doris was again cheerleader.

Now twenty of us were brave enough to come back to our Junior year and then we lost two members. They were: June Dyer and Margaret Hoffman. This left us with eighteen gracious members. We presented our play "Let Me Out of Here". It was a bang up success. Those that took part in it were: Germaine, Delos, Henry, Teddy S., John, Donna, Margaret, Lola Mae, Loren, and Lucille. In order to raise money for our Junior-Senior banquet was Hawaiian, Marjorie and Dorothy were the only members of the Junior class that took Declamation. Five of the boys out of our class were among the first ten on the basketball team. They were: Delos, Teddy S., Loren, Teddy H., and Anthony. Out of the goodness of the Junior hearts Doris was allowed to raise her soprano voice again as cheerleader. We never slighted the moonlight and roses either, because during this time some of our classmates were going steady. They were: Margaret and Loren, Marjorie and Henry, Lucille and Charles Meier, Harold and Bonnie, John and Peggy, Dorothy and Don, Donna and Robert Bogenhagen, Ruth and Tommy Lutz, Lola Mae and Edmond Khristensen, Teddy S. and Janie, Norma and Gene H., Doris was still deciding, Delos was just a wolf after everyboy's heart throb, Anthony just liked to pick up at noon and take them to school --that's all the further he went so he said, and Teddy H. was just another wolf at heart. That about winds up our Junior year, except for the day we took off to go to Mitchell to visit the college.

Last but not least our Senior year. Margaret was selected D.A.R. candidate. Again Teddy S., Delos, Loren, Anthony, and Teddy H. were on the first ten in the basketball team. Marjorie was the only one that took Declamation out of this class, rating good, at the District contest. Doris was still rah-rahing as cheerleader. Donna and Lola Mae dropped out of band. We had our graduation pictures taken and they were good. As yet we have not chosen our play. The basketball boys have done a splendid job of winning most of their games this year. We are hoping the outcome will be in our favor, meaning the championship. Four of this class attended all twelve years of school together in White Lake. They were: Doris, Ruth, Loren and Teddy S.

While we are taking away on graduation night a handful of precious memories, we're leaving White Lake High some of our favorite seats in the assembly, the enthusiasm we used to bring to the basketball games and the hope that we won't be forgotten.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Seniors of 1946, being of sound minds and bodies, do hereby bequeath and bestow all our worldly treasures in the following manner.

I, Marjorie Bruggeman will my giggle to Arlene Adams and my bird-like appetite to Marian Mohnen.

I, Anthony Hanten, will my curly hair to Dwight Shottenkirk, and my way with the girls to Irwin Neilson.

I, Germaine Gales, will my ability to study and get A's on my report card to Gordon Sackett, and my typing ability to Cyril Peters.

I, Donna Steffen, hand down my quiet nature to Lois Meier, and my eagerness to study to Bob Suelflow.

I, Harold Nightingale, leave my green Model A with the musical horns to Jimmy Mahoney so Lois will know when he is coming.

I, Johnny Neilson, will my manly stature to Duane Peters and my blushing to anyone who wants it.

I, Margaret Hettinger, will my knack of getting along with the teachers to Dwight Shottenkirk and my collection of Senior Boy's Rings to Eleanor Bogenhagan.

I, Teddy Schone, will my monopoly on one of the Bare girls to John Mohnen, and my 'Gift of Gab' to Maxine Mairose.

I, Delos Hopkins, will my saxophone technique to John Mohnen, and my knowledge of other peoples' business to Larry Wells.

I, Norma Peters, will my interest in out-of-town boys to Catherine Steichen and my curly, auburn hair to Maggie Hoffmann.

I, Henry Goepfert, will my height to Jack Deisch and my motto, "Love Em' and Leave Em'" to Ronnie Messer.

I, Lola Mae Mohnen, will my eagerness to study and to get my lessons in on time to Bobby Suelflow.

I, Loren Haines, will my technique of playing basketball and making baskets to Irwin Neilson, and my enjoyment of pestering the teachers to any Junior boy.

I, Lucille Moe, will my soprano voice to Arlene Adams, and my interest in transportation, or trips to Sioux Falls, to any Junior Girl who would like a tall, Blonde, Handsome Hunk of man.

I, Teddy Hanten, will my shyness with the fairer sex to Larry Wells, and my careful driving to Pete Glissendorf.

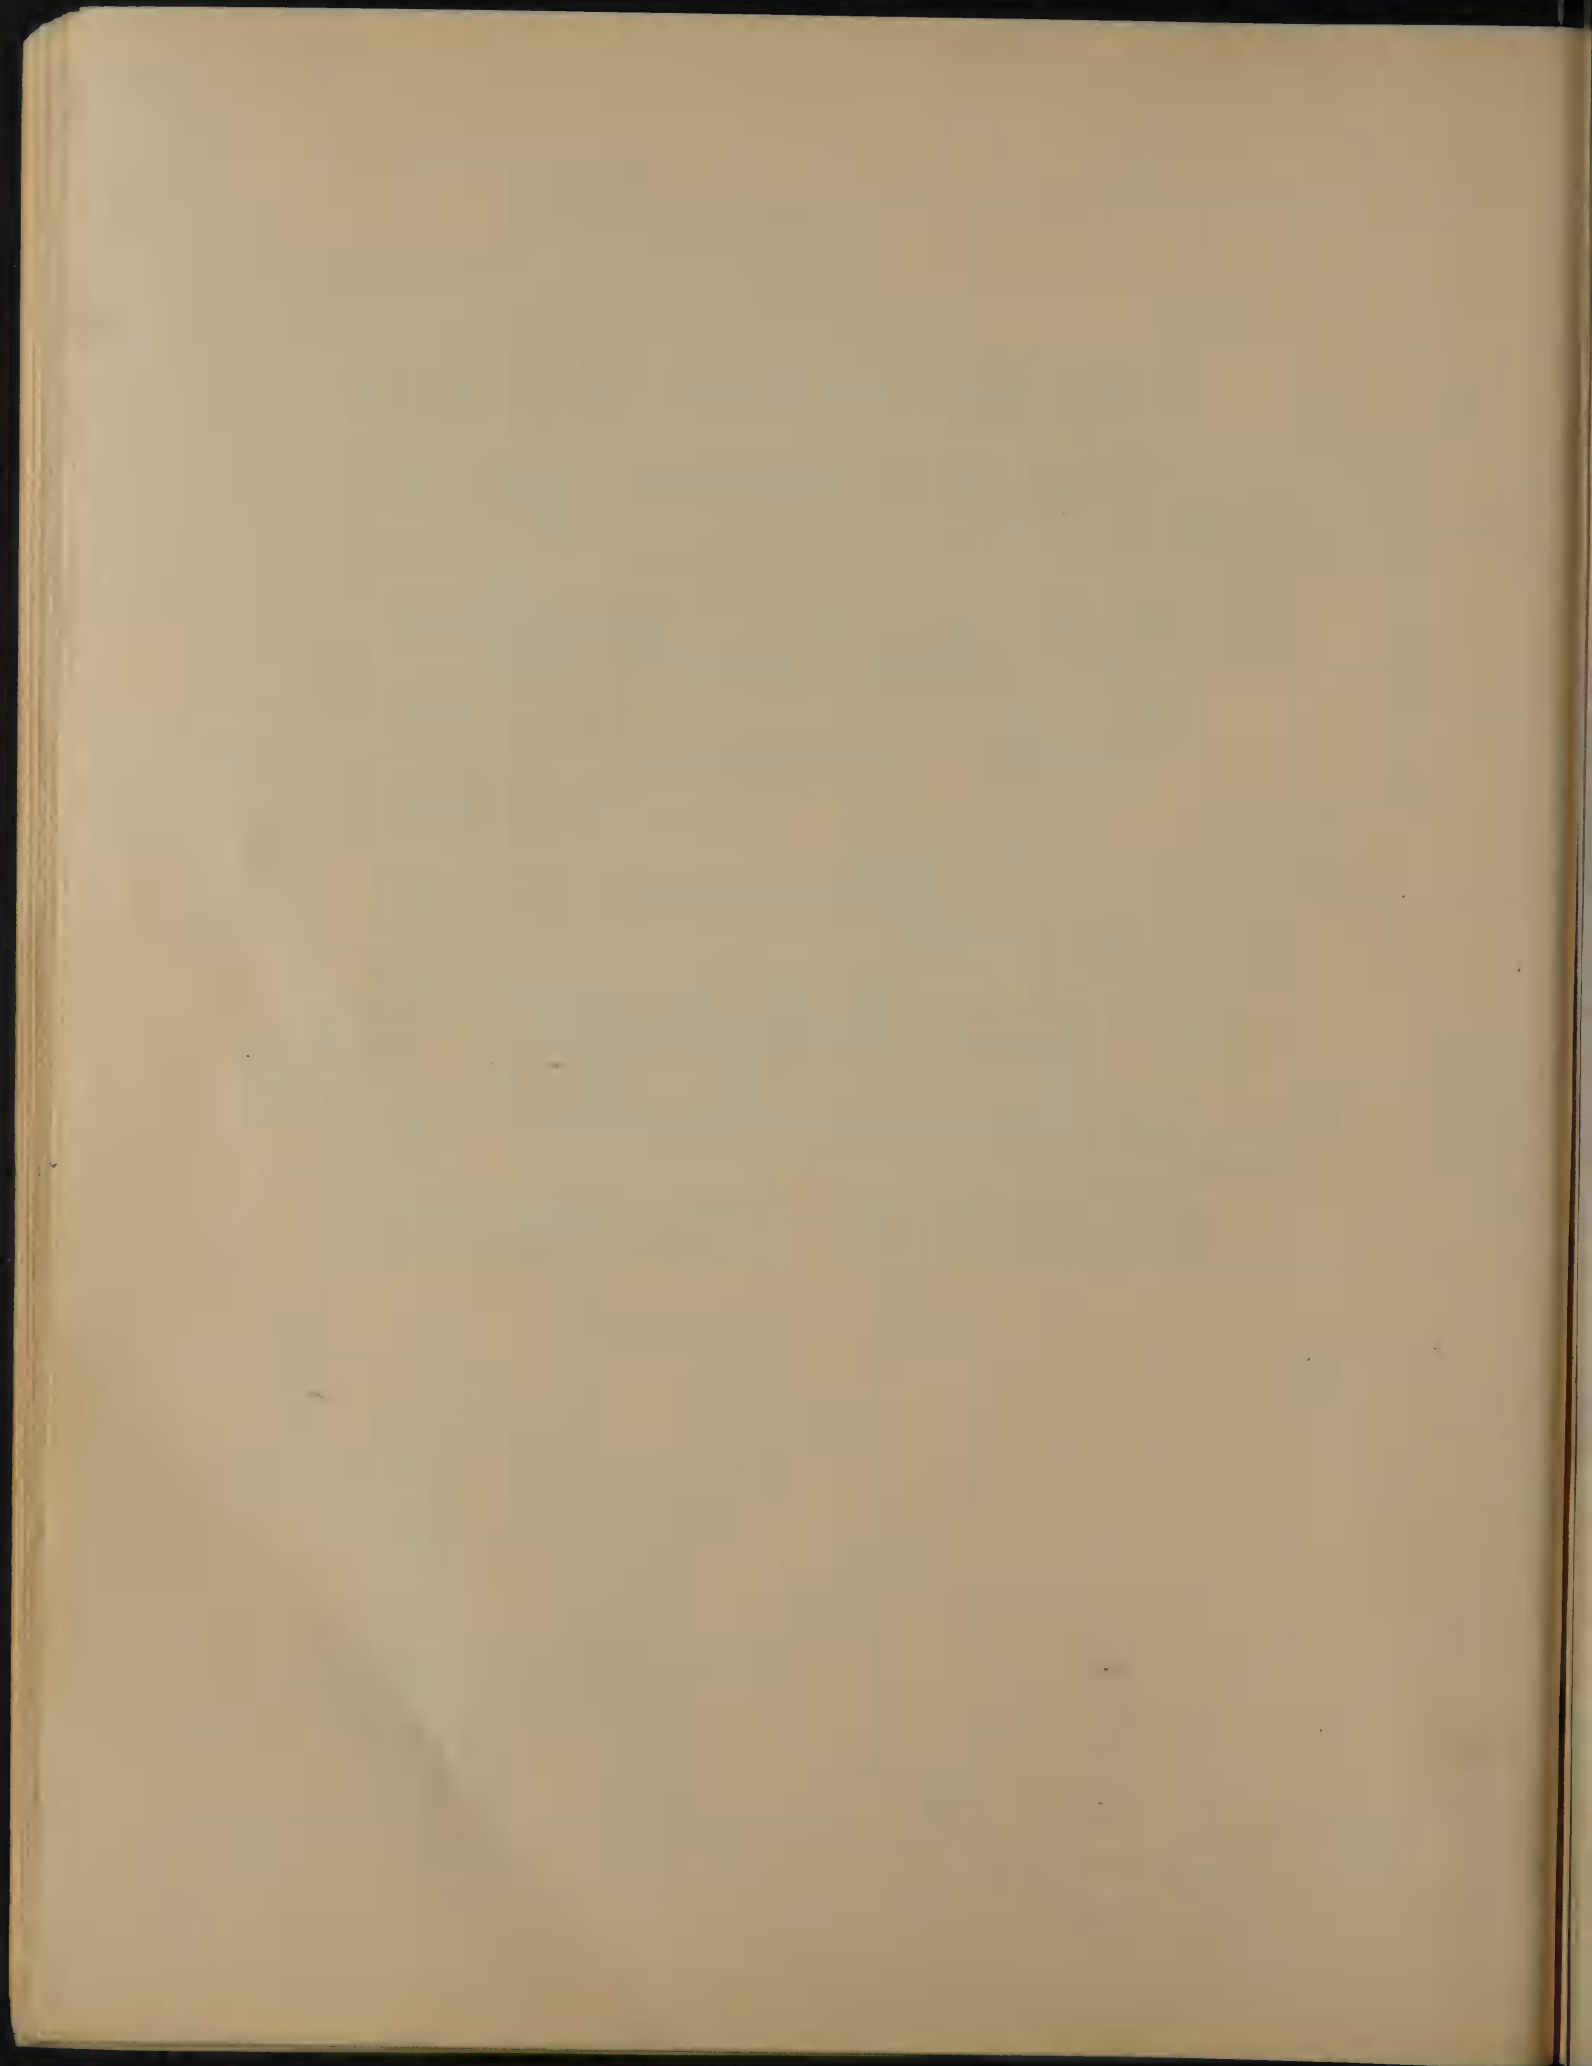

We, the Senior Class, will to the Freshman Class all the fun we've had in the past four years.

To the Sophomore Class we give our ability to agree, and to co-operate with each other.

We will to the Junior Students, who will take American Government next year, the A's and B's that we failed to get.

We, the Senior Basket Ball boys, leave to the Freshman boys the hopes that they will have as much enjoyment in their four years of basketball as we have had.

We, the Senior Girls, leave the knack of catching and keeping our men, to the Junior Girls.

Hi Chum,

I thought I would drop you a line to tell you of the reunion of the class of 1947, which was held at the White Lake Public school. The reason we held the reunion at the old school was because of all the memories it holds and because our classmate, Loren Haines is janitor.

Refreshments were served by Loren's delightful wife, Margaret, as you remember one of our old classmates, and little Loren Jr. was there also.

I flew in from the West Coast for the reunion, and I was glad to see my chums again. I am single and happy, working on a nationally known magazine.

I was very glad to see my pal Donna who is happily married in Oklahoma. They chose this state the former Steffen girl confided, to get away from the cold South Dakota winters.

Others who flew to the reunion were John Neilson who lives in New York, with his Irish bride. We were all anxious to see the newly weds, yes I said newly weds, it took Johnnie nine years to propose. He is now a manager of a lumber yard.

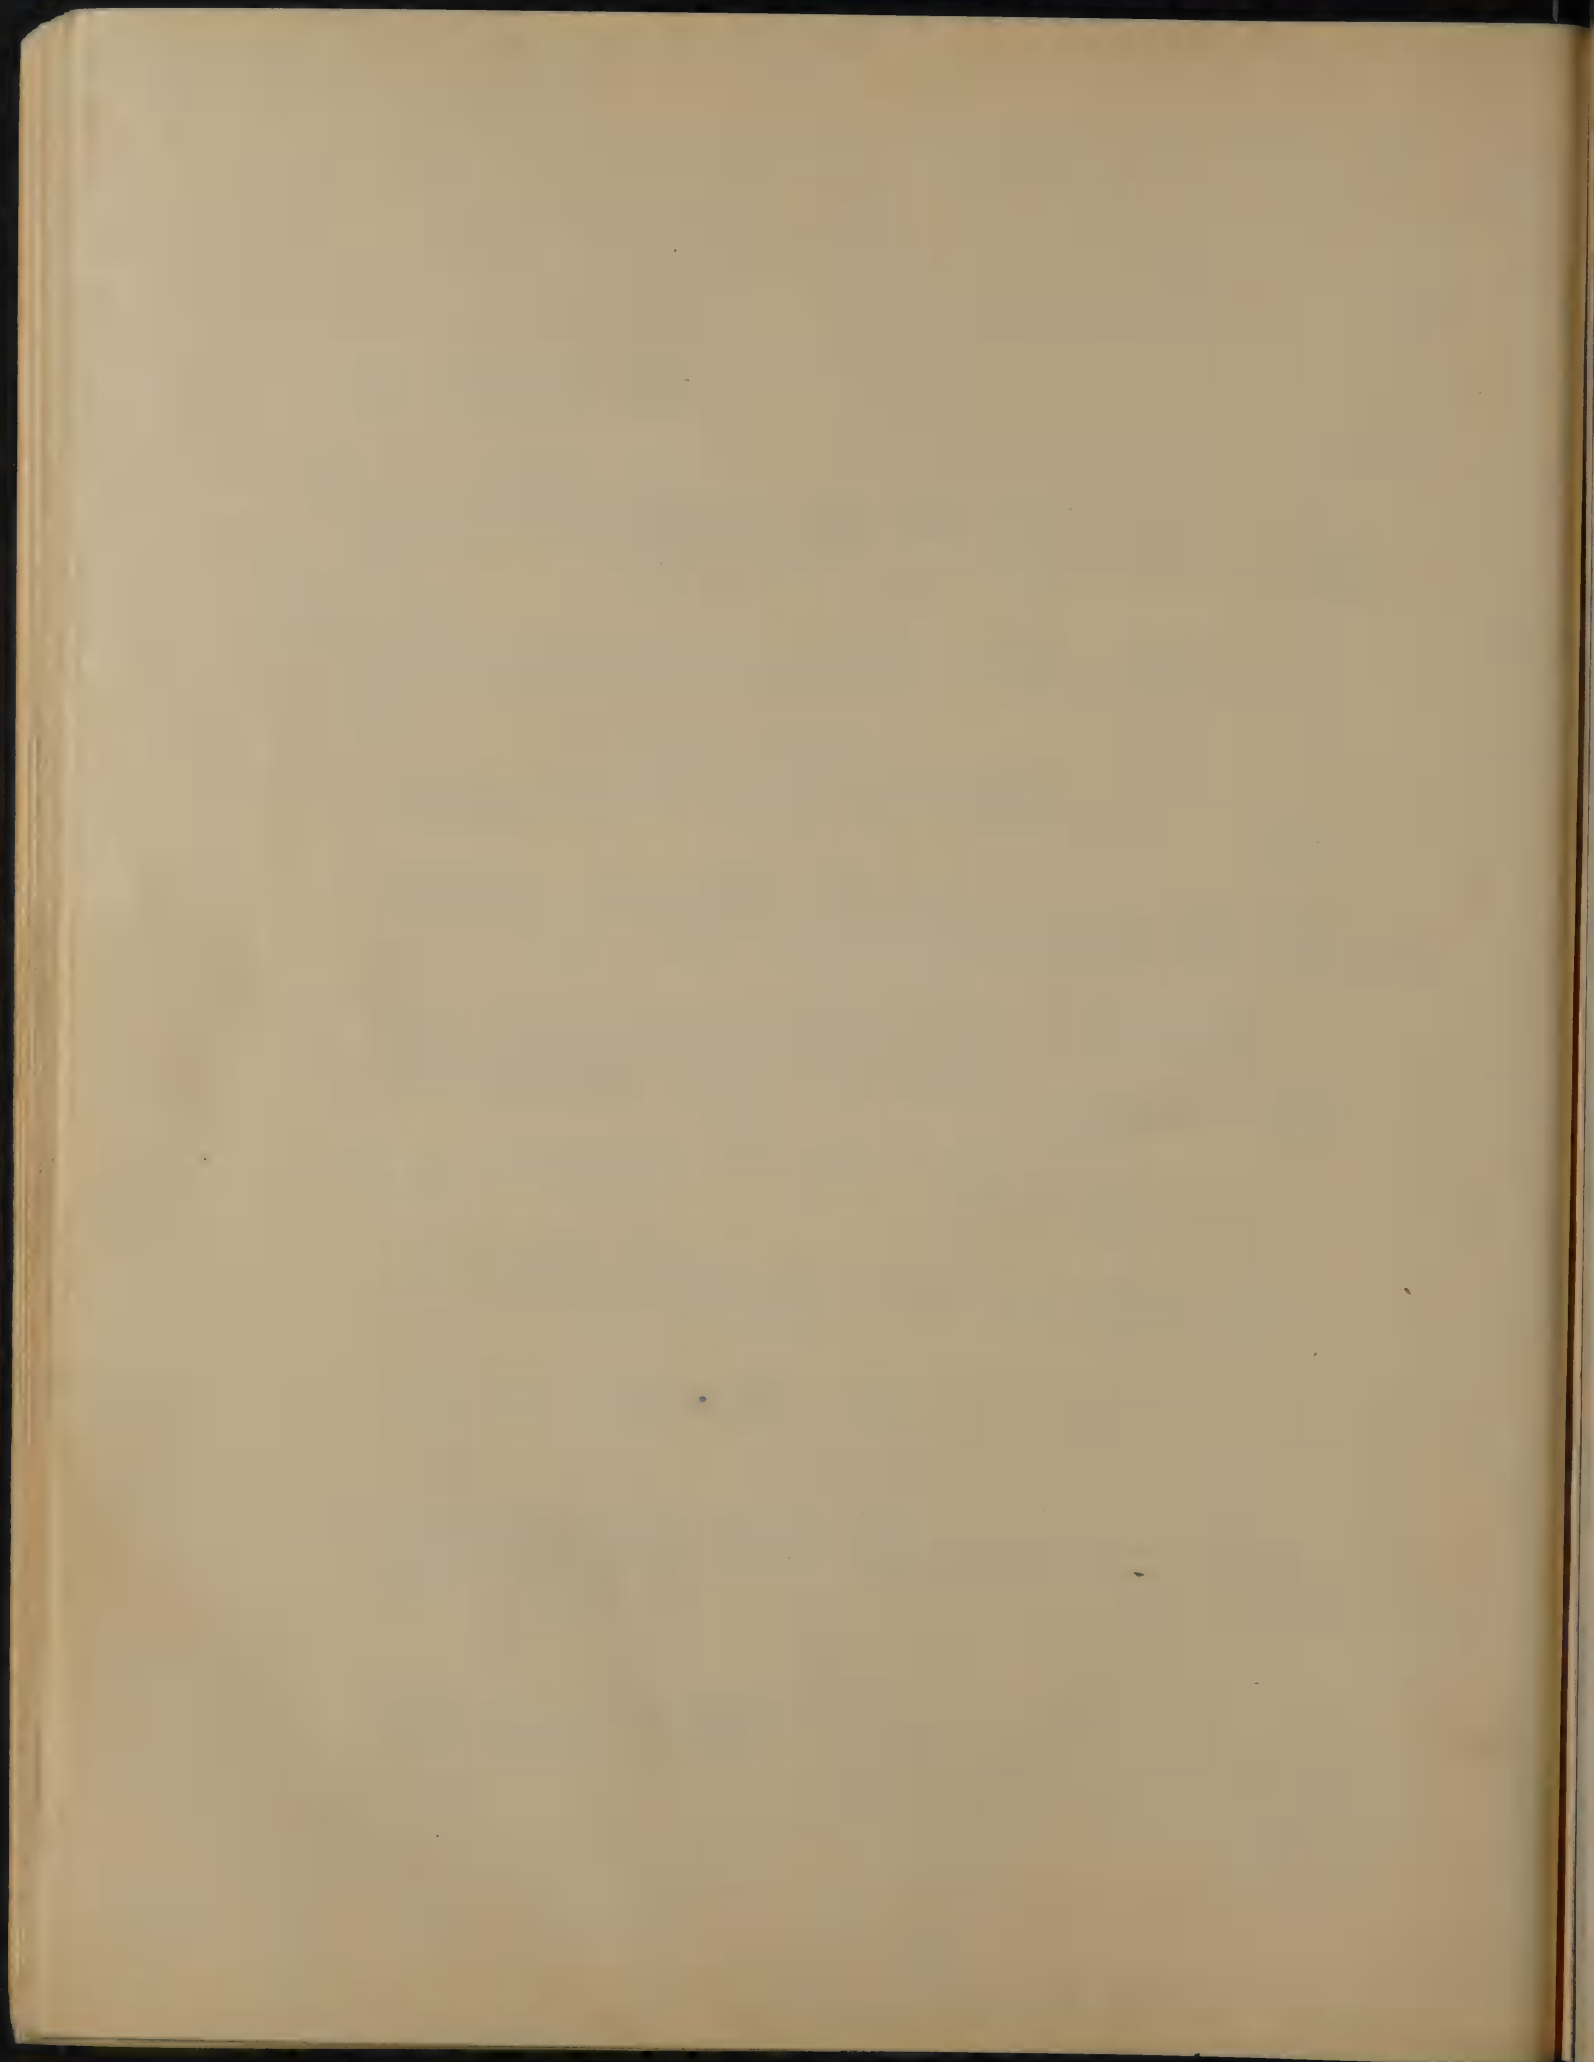

Lola Mae Mohnen didn't have far to come, as she is happily married, on a farm near Plankinton.

Henry Goepfert, flew in from Alaska, where he is holding the position as a mechanic and in his spare time trying to find gold or some other rare mineral.

Marjorie Bruggeman is now a famous opera singer and ballet dancer and starring in the famous movie "The Thrill of a Lifetime", with a handsome leading man.

Teddy Schone is a famous cook in Washington D.C. at the White House, where he is reknown for his cream puffs. His wife Lucille, one of the Moe girls, helps him to prepare the meals. Lucy is the last word on formal dinners and they say no state dinner is given without first consulting her good taste.

Ruth M. Beutner is writing a love-lorn column in a nationally known newspaper called, "How to Be Happily Married". She is thinking about giving up this position, because she wishes to spend more of her time with her husband Tommy.

Dr. Delos Hopkins is now living at Baltimore, Maryland where he is one of the world's most famous surgeons. There are rumors that there will soon be a hospital built in his honor.

Dorothy Schuman who is now married, lives north of White Lake. She resigned from her teaching position and concentrates on teaching Donald Jr.

You remember Anthony Hanten don't you, well he is a famous Hollywood man about town always lost in the starlets, who spends much of his time in the night-clubs, still wolfing around.

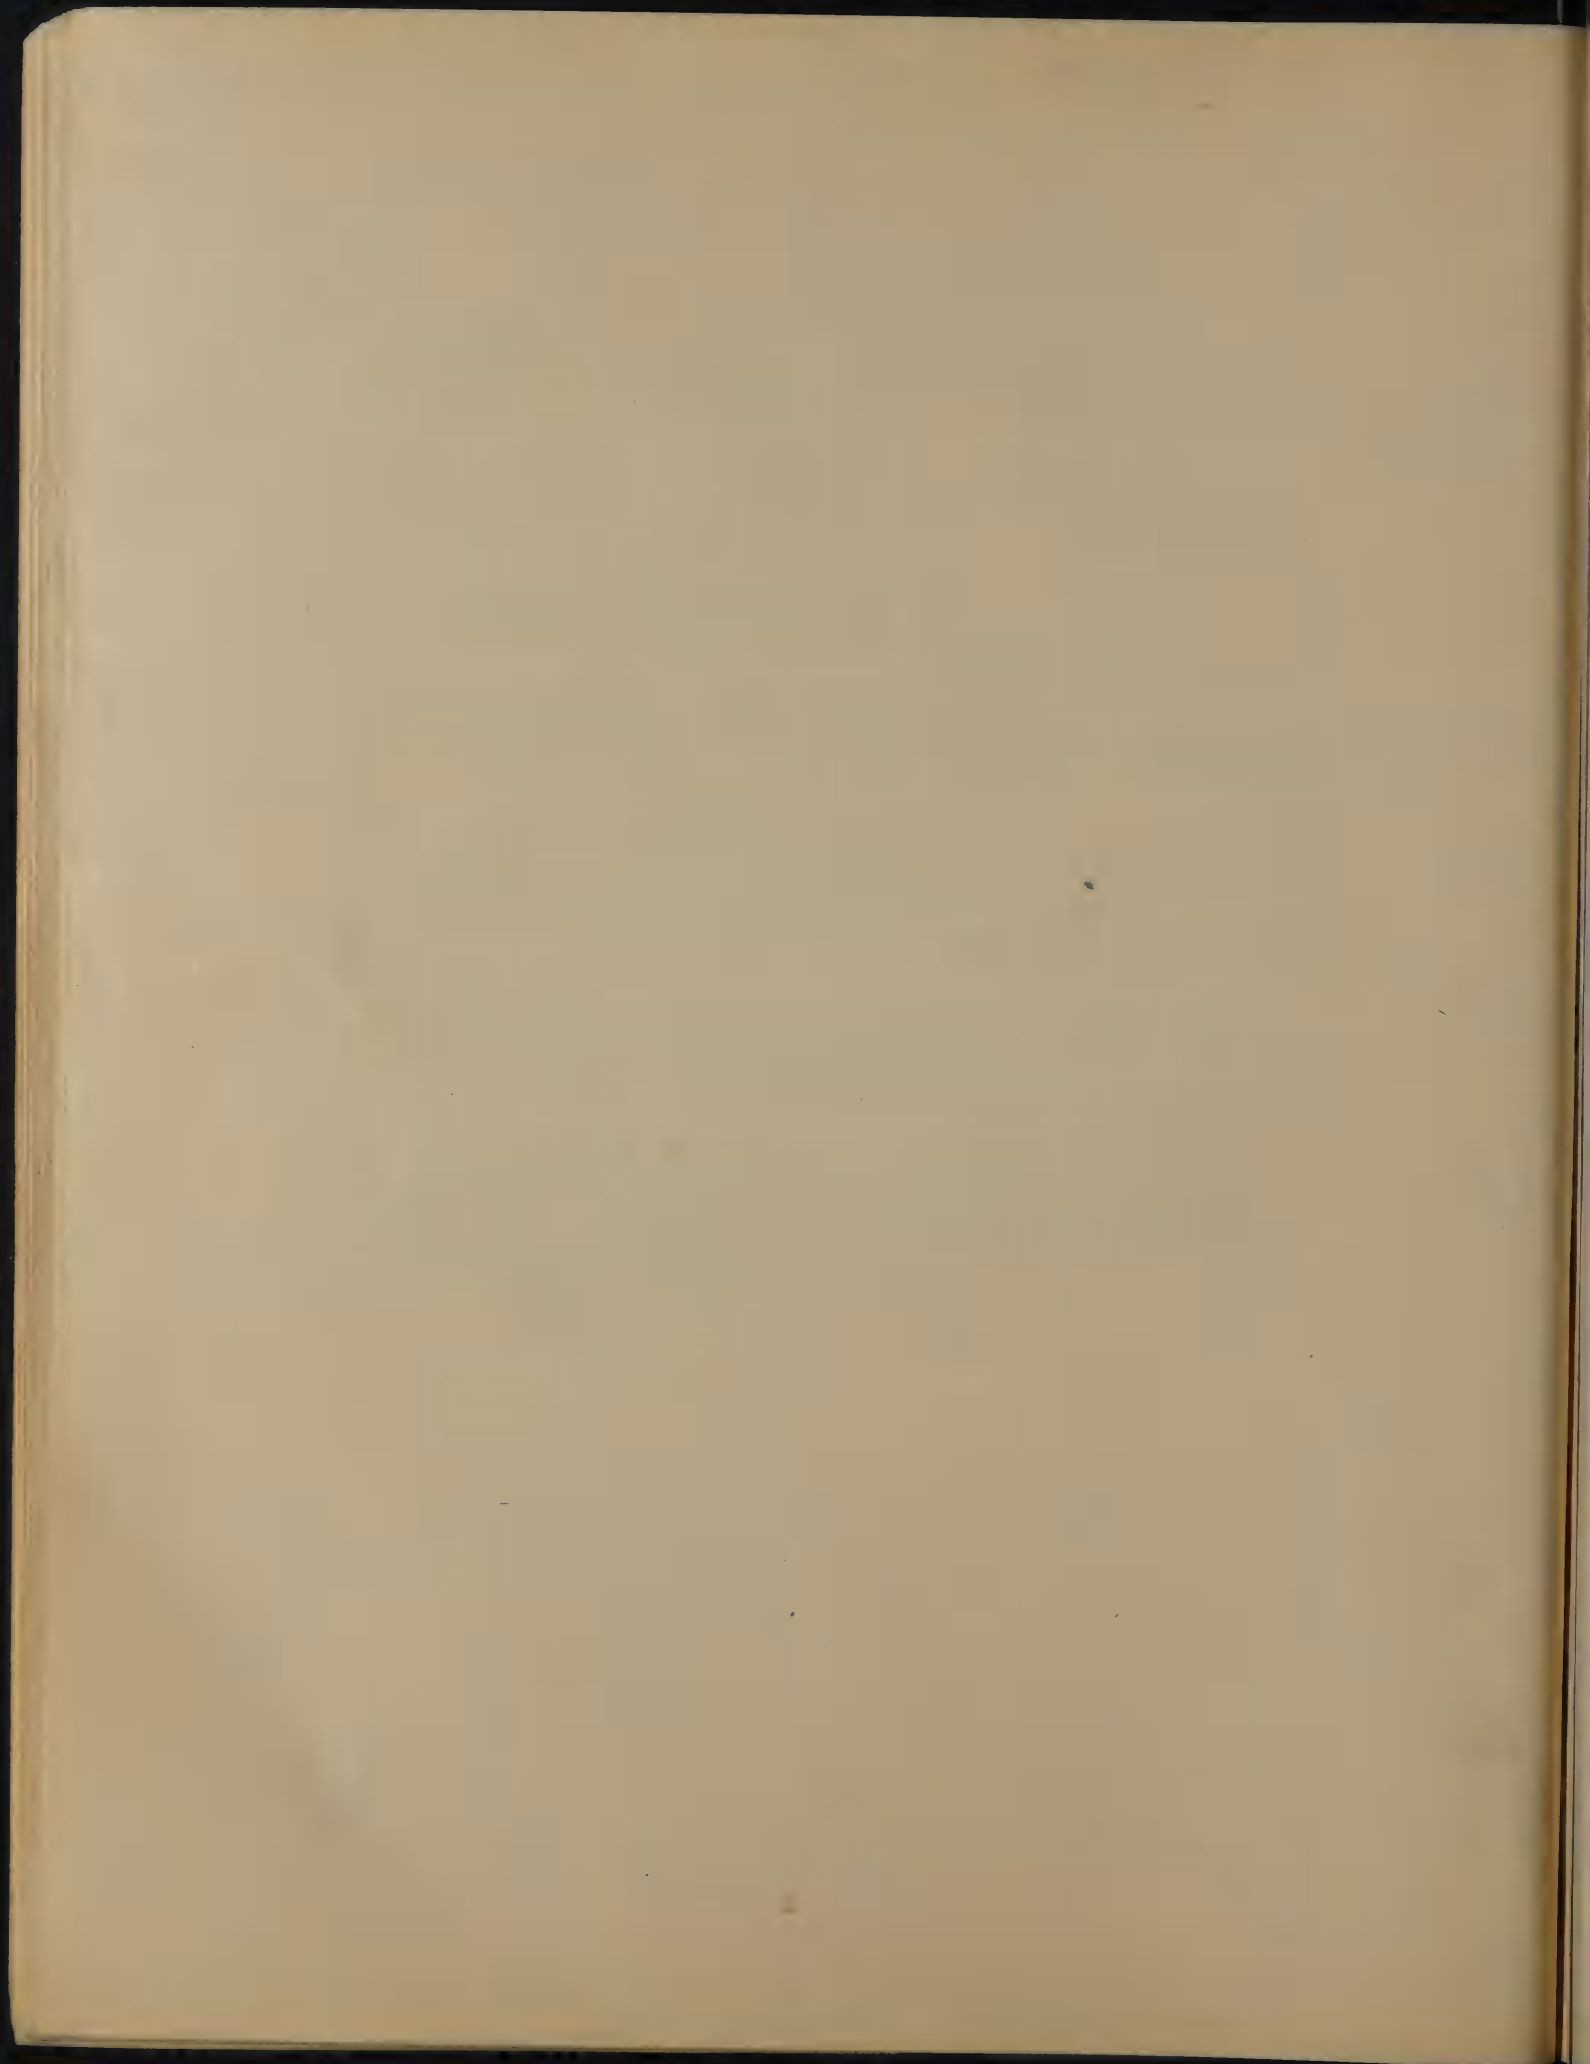

Doris Getty is now working in a multi-mirrored bar, owned by her husband, wealthy Tommy Hanson. They cater only to the upper crust, and still look like a couple of carefree kids.

A distinguished gentleman with a beard that was a joy to behold had me puzzled as to his identity, it was Harold Nightingale. He is quietly settled down, and happily married after, getting over his lost love, Caroline. When I commented on his appearance he told me that he hadn't shaved since '47.

Last to arrive was Norma Peters and her husband, who live near Kimball. They brought along their cute little twin girls who resemble their father except for their red-hair.

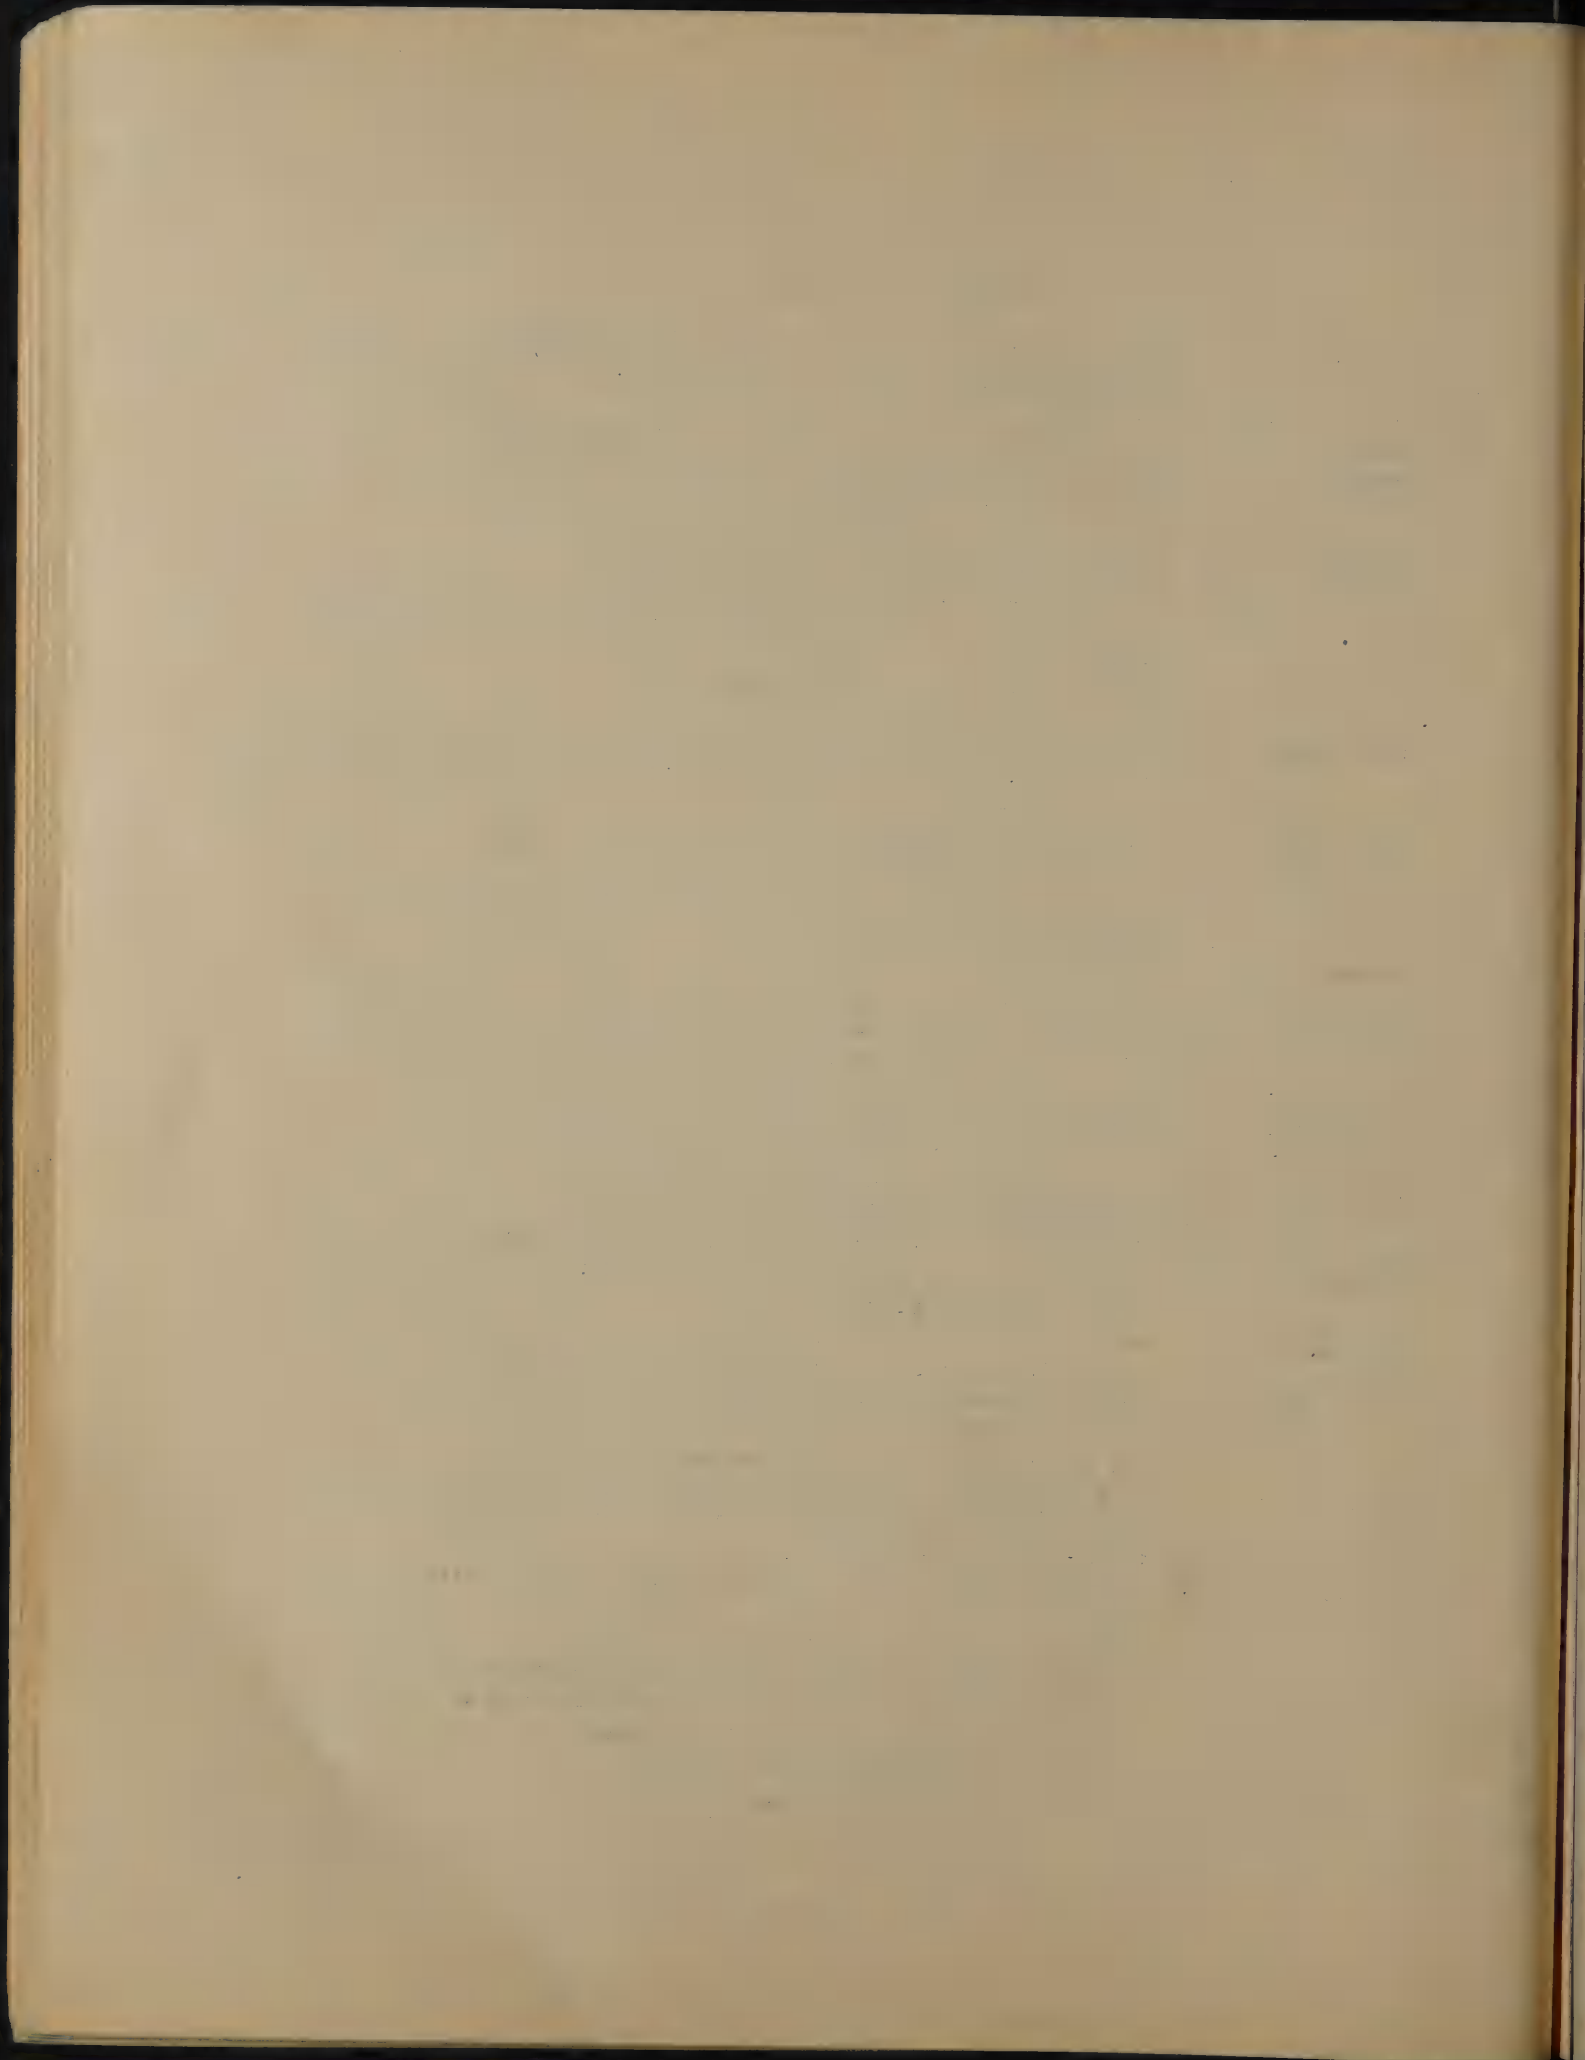

I have been looking forward to visiting in the homes of my many classmates and to meeting all of their wonder children but I was called to the coast on unexpected business. Oh, well, I growl with annoyance, I can cheerfully look forward to seeing them all at another reunion ten years from now. So till we meet again, Cherrio !!

Your Friend,
Gerry

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

The Juniors of White Lake High, number twenty-four this year. They have a reputation for being one of the most active and lively classes of all. Their Vivacity has displayed itself by their active participation in athletics, band, glee club, and declamation.

Their play "Everybody's Getting Married," was presented to a capacity audience, November the 8th, 1946, and proved to be a great success. The annual Basket Social was held in the Legion Hall, January 21, 1947, everyone enjoyed himself dancing to the Columbians.

Highlights of the spring will be their prom in the school gymnasium with music by Pat Boffman and their banquet in the Methodist Church May 1st.

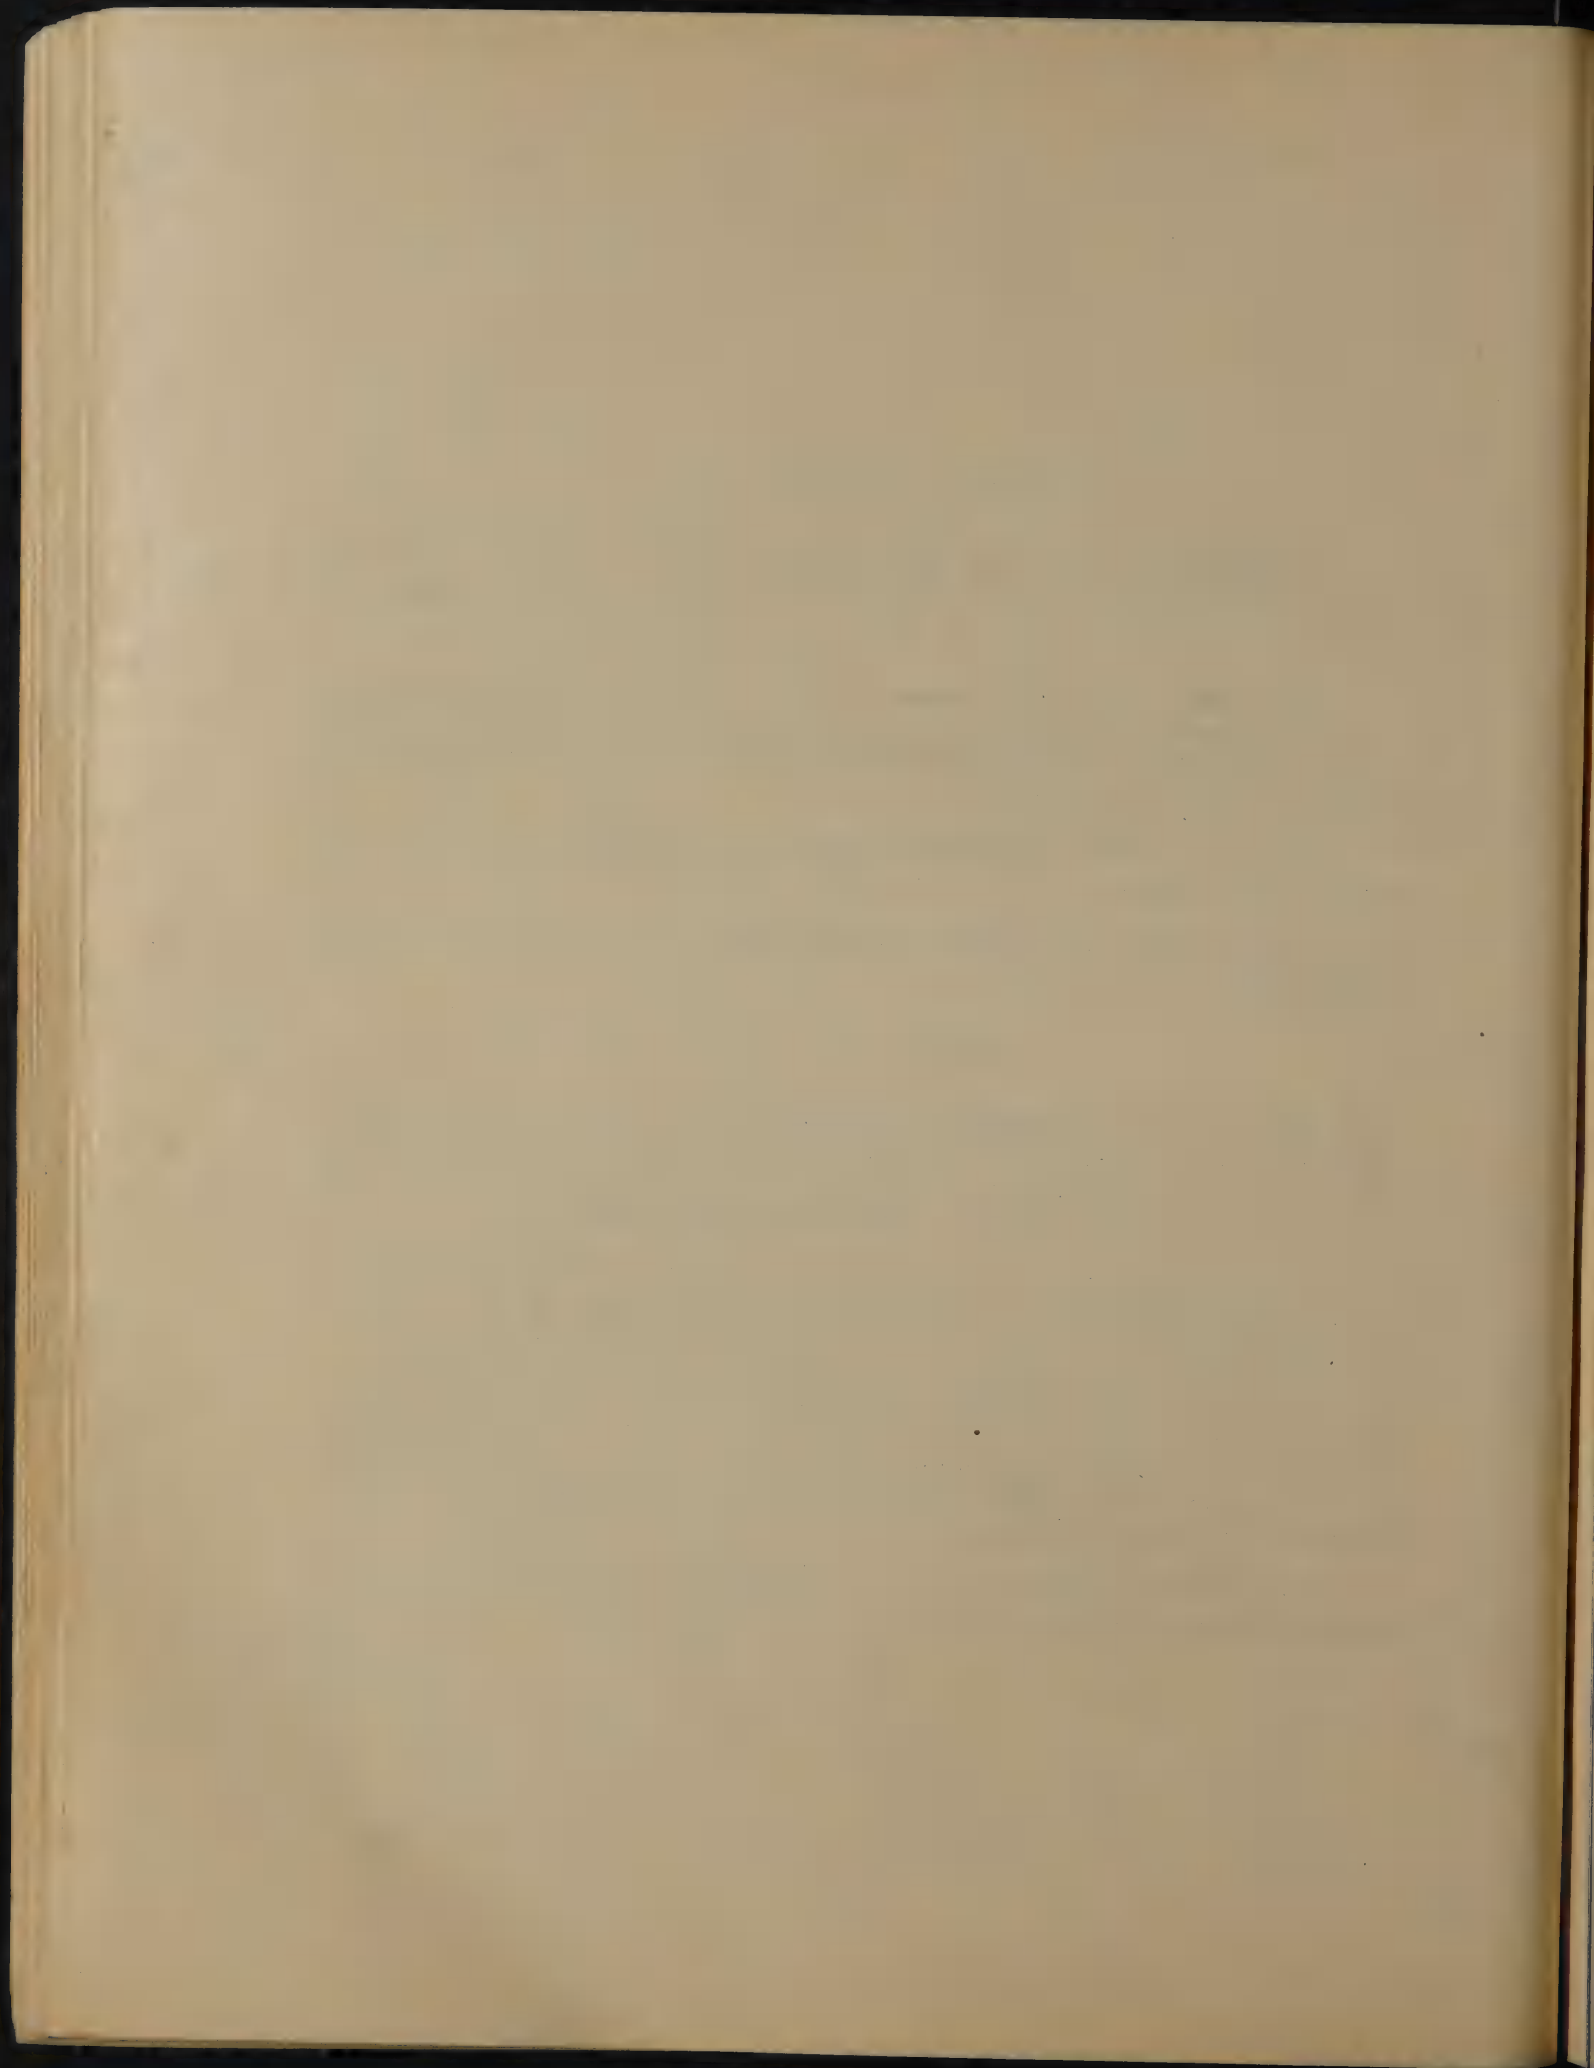

Next year they will endeavor to fill the shoes, so recently vacated by the sophisticated Seniors.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

When a young man inherits a million dollars and six women who want husbands, complications arise. For nearly one-hundred and twenty minutes the members of the Junior Class kept a capacity audience laughing to the situations of William Russell Moore's farce, "Everybody's Getting Married."

Dean Garrett, a business genius, was aptly portrayed by Duane Peters whose problem was to solve the hero's mixup and marry him off to the right girl. Donald Schmitz was the leading man opposite Doris Ann Scott. As the very English butler, Bob Suelflow scored many laughs in his pursuit of the spinster, Betty Lou Frederickson. For comedy there was Hazel Anton as an Irish washwoman, Alcene Nowotny as a glamorous actress with her cap set for the staid lawyer, Jack Deich and three gentlemen of fortune, in the persons of Cyril Peter, Irvin Nielson and Wayne Glissendorf. Leona Smith, Eleanor Bogenhagen, and Maxine Mairose in straight parts added charm to the story.

Under the able direction of Mrs. Leona Rauch the whole play served to bring much enjoyment and entertainment to the audience.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

In September of 1945, fifteen eager beavers wound their way to the open door of high school.

Those of our class who graduated from the Eighth grade together and entered high school were; Thomas Hanson, Melva Williams, Maxine Galer, Thelma Dean Hanten, Evelyn Berquist, Leo Gillen, Shirley Hengen, and Marjorei Oltmans.

There was an increase of seven pupils, to the eight who graduated from the eighth grade. They were; Louise Martin, Irene Rischel, Jane Williams, Charles Graham, Bonnie Rauch, Patty Mohnen, and Jean Nightingale. Velma Carpenter, joined us in the third week of school and left us in the latter part of the year.

The second week started each day with the then popular song, "Oh, What a Beautiful Morning", and ended with a low groan caused by painful knees, from crawling up and down the stairs. As you must have guessed by now, this was initiation week.

After four days of being mistreated, upbraided, hazed, and being turned up side down, we were given a dance by the Seniors, whose hearts, we discovered were in the right place!

We gave a return high school dance to the seniors in October. Our class officers for the first year were Thomas Hanson as President, Bonnie Rauch as Vice-President, and Maxine Galer was Secretary and Treasurer. Our class advisor was Donna Scott.

Thanksgiving and Christmas came as a welcome interlude in the course of the year.

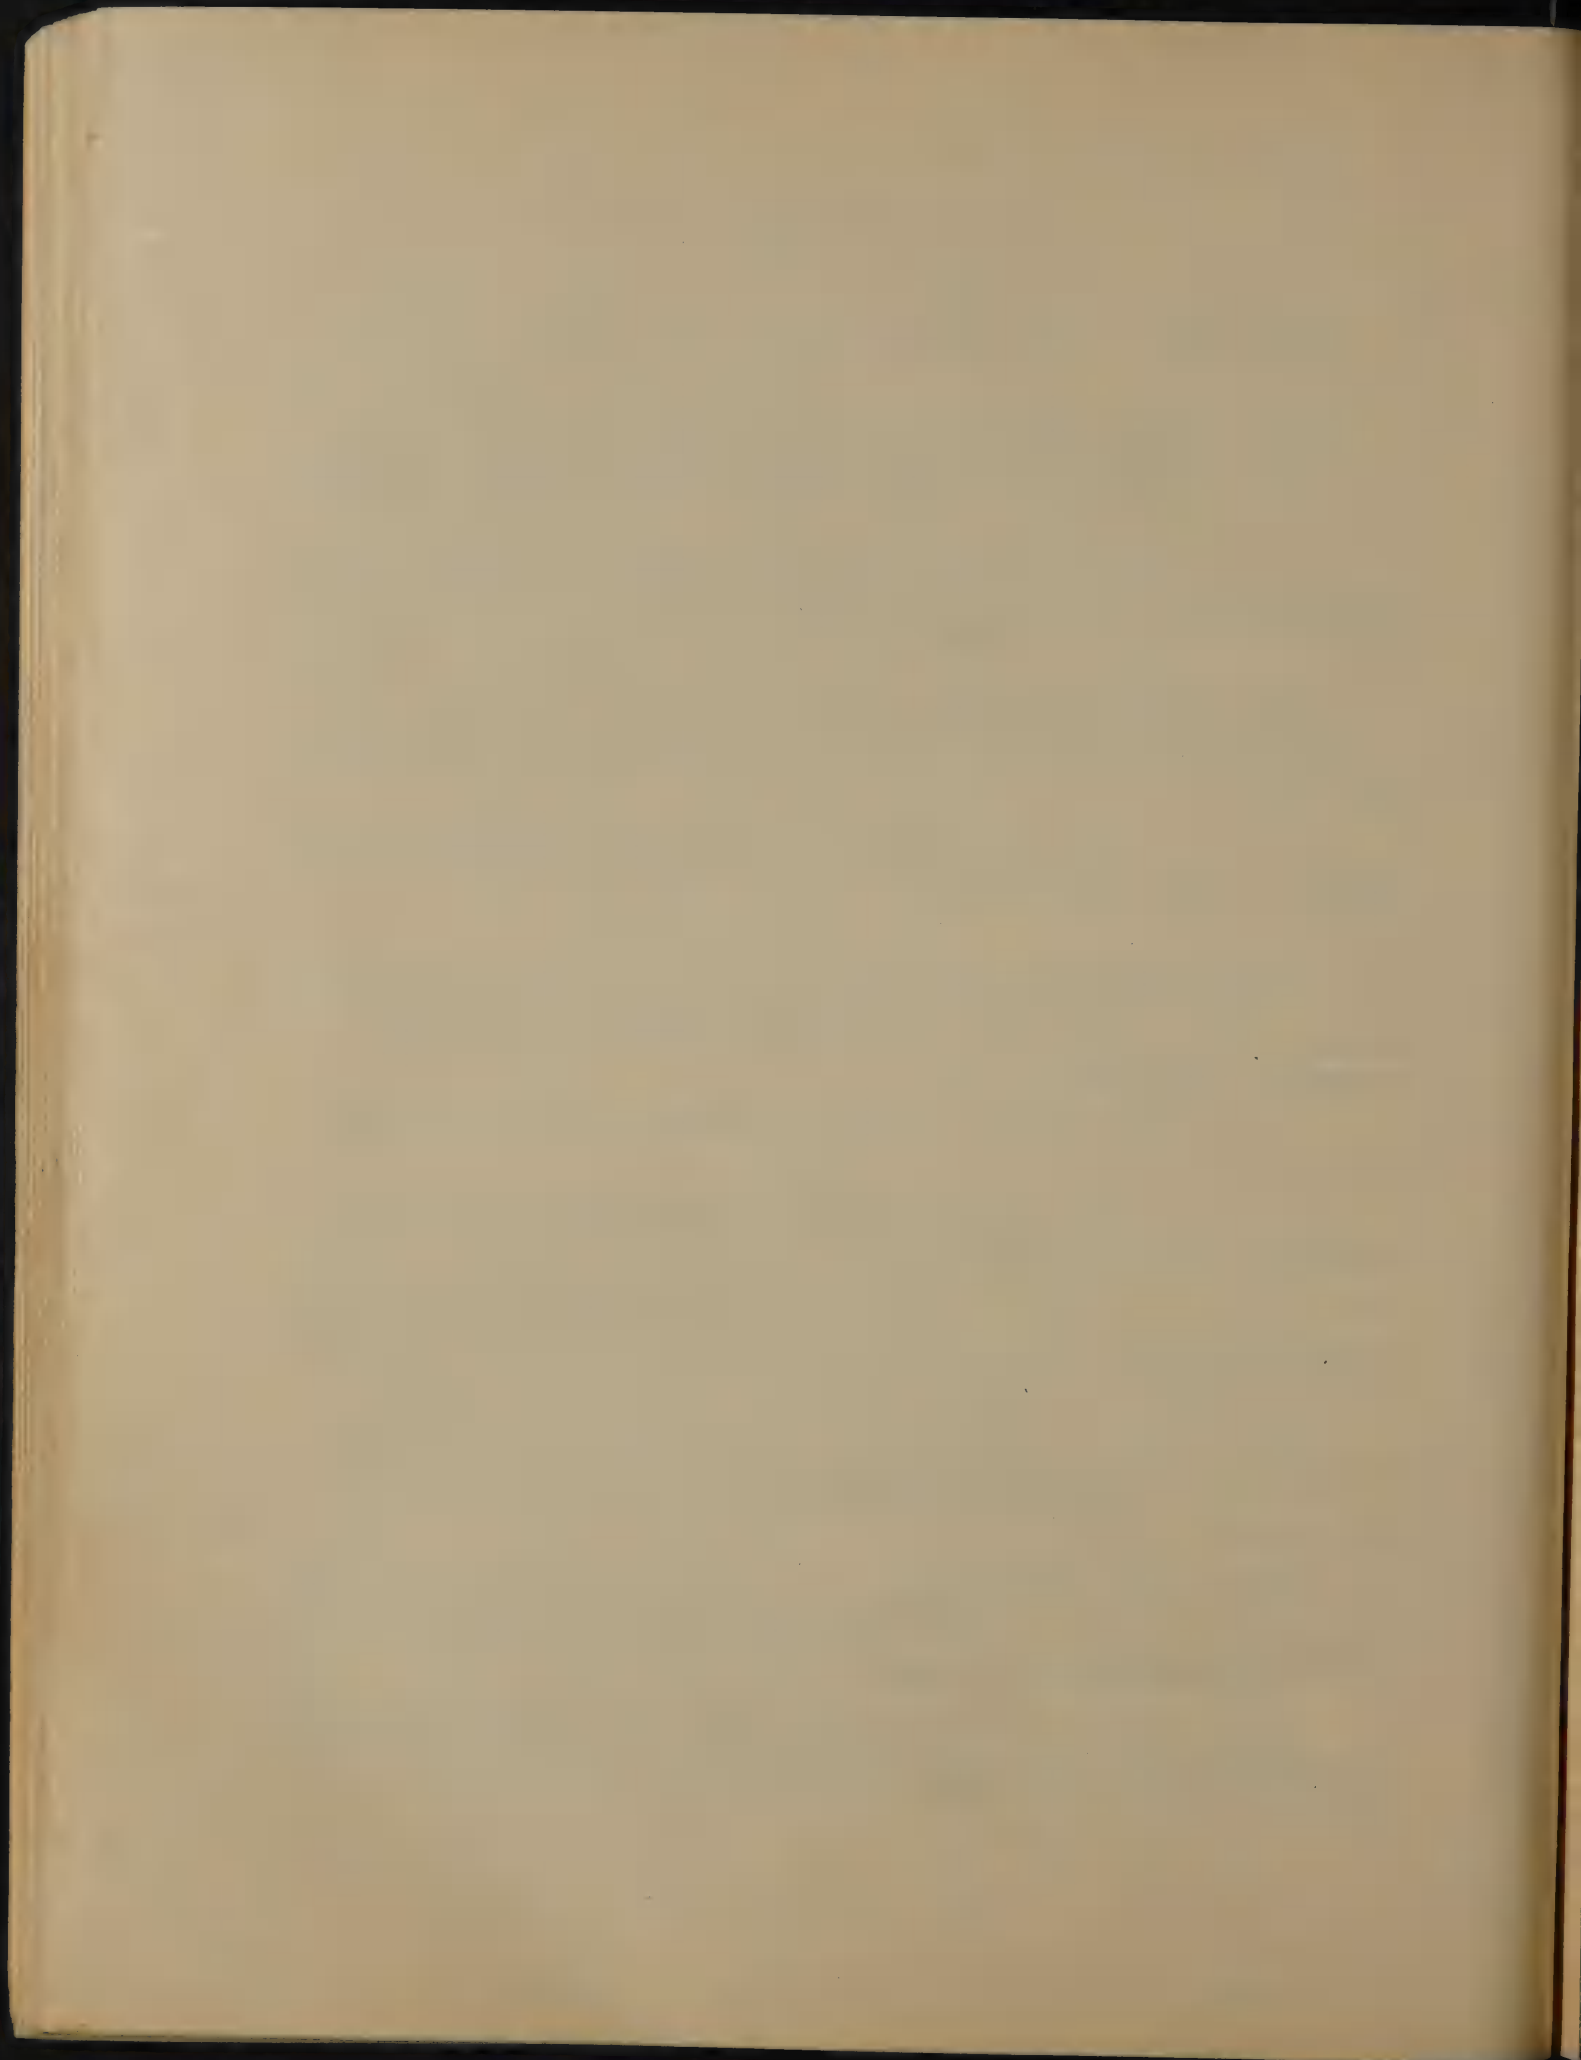

In the spring our Algebra Class went on a picnic to the Golf Course. Our School picnic finished the school year and we became Sophomores.

Our class came back to school in the fall without Jane Williams, who left to return to her home in Washington D. C. The number still remained fifteen for Joanne Stone joined at this time.

We were far enough removed from the horrors of initiation to enjoy the antics of the frosh, and the dance given by the Seniors. We swung out at the return dance to Harry James, Guy Lombardo, and Benny Goodman, but of course they were just records.

Because of the change of the color of the basketball suits, the Sophomore class did a land office business selling red and white hats and shields, to brighten up our rooting section at the out of town games. At the P. T. A. meeting in February we presented two one-act plays to an appreciative audience.

The Class this year boasts the only girl class officers of High School. They are Melva Williams, President; Thelma Dean Hanten, Vice-President; and Maxine Galer, Secretary and Treasurer. Our class advisor is Coach Schoof.

FRESHMEN CLASS HISTORY

'Twas September 1st in '46
When 24 Freshies looked mighty sick.
They entered the building full of fear
The Seniors laughed,said, "Look who's here "

Initiation began the 2nd week
We watched Freshies green and meek.
Eat onions for the Seniors great-
Gave all them a tummy ache.

Humbled the next week
They came with respect,
For fear the Seniors might
Break their necks.

I

Bob P. the biggest flirt
Has been around this year.
Watch him when he sees a skirt,
He's a wolf we hear.

II

Next is Corrine Fraser
The "shortie" of the class
Cute personality,
One hard to surpass.

III

Clemmy Kluthe, dear little lad,
Has Mavis on the string
If you see him looking sad
Its just one of those things.

IV

Next comes a scotch man
Minus the plaid
Mischief maker, Myron Cole
Looking sort of sad.

V

Mavis is the freshie
Who makes Clemmy sigh,
Always doing homework
Making her grades high.

VI

Darlene Reis is
A friendly lass,
Full of pep and
The genius of the class.

VII

Billy Danley
Slights the goils,
Spends his time
With gas and oils.

VIII

Little as a minute,
Always aims to please
Is the little Freshie,
We call Normie Reis.

IX

Shy and bashful
As can be,
Likes to drive
That's Leland G.

X

Lucille Hilton,
A true brunette,
Soupie thinks
The cutest yet

XI

The Freshie Basketball Star
Across the floor he sails,
Into the basket goes the ball,
Yep, that's Marvin Gales.

XII

Lorraine Adams
A studious lass
Is working her way
To the head of the class.

XIII

Who makes noise?
A bunch of racket-
Well, you guessed it
Gary Sackett.

XIV

Lola Johnson
A friendly lass,
Is a lively member
Of the Freshie Class.

XV

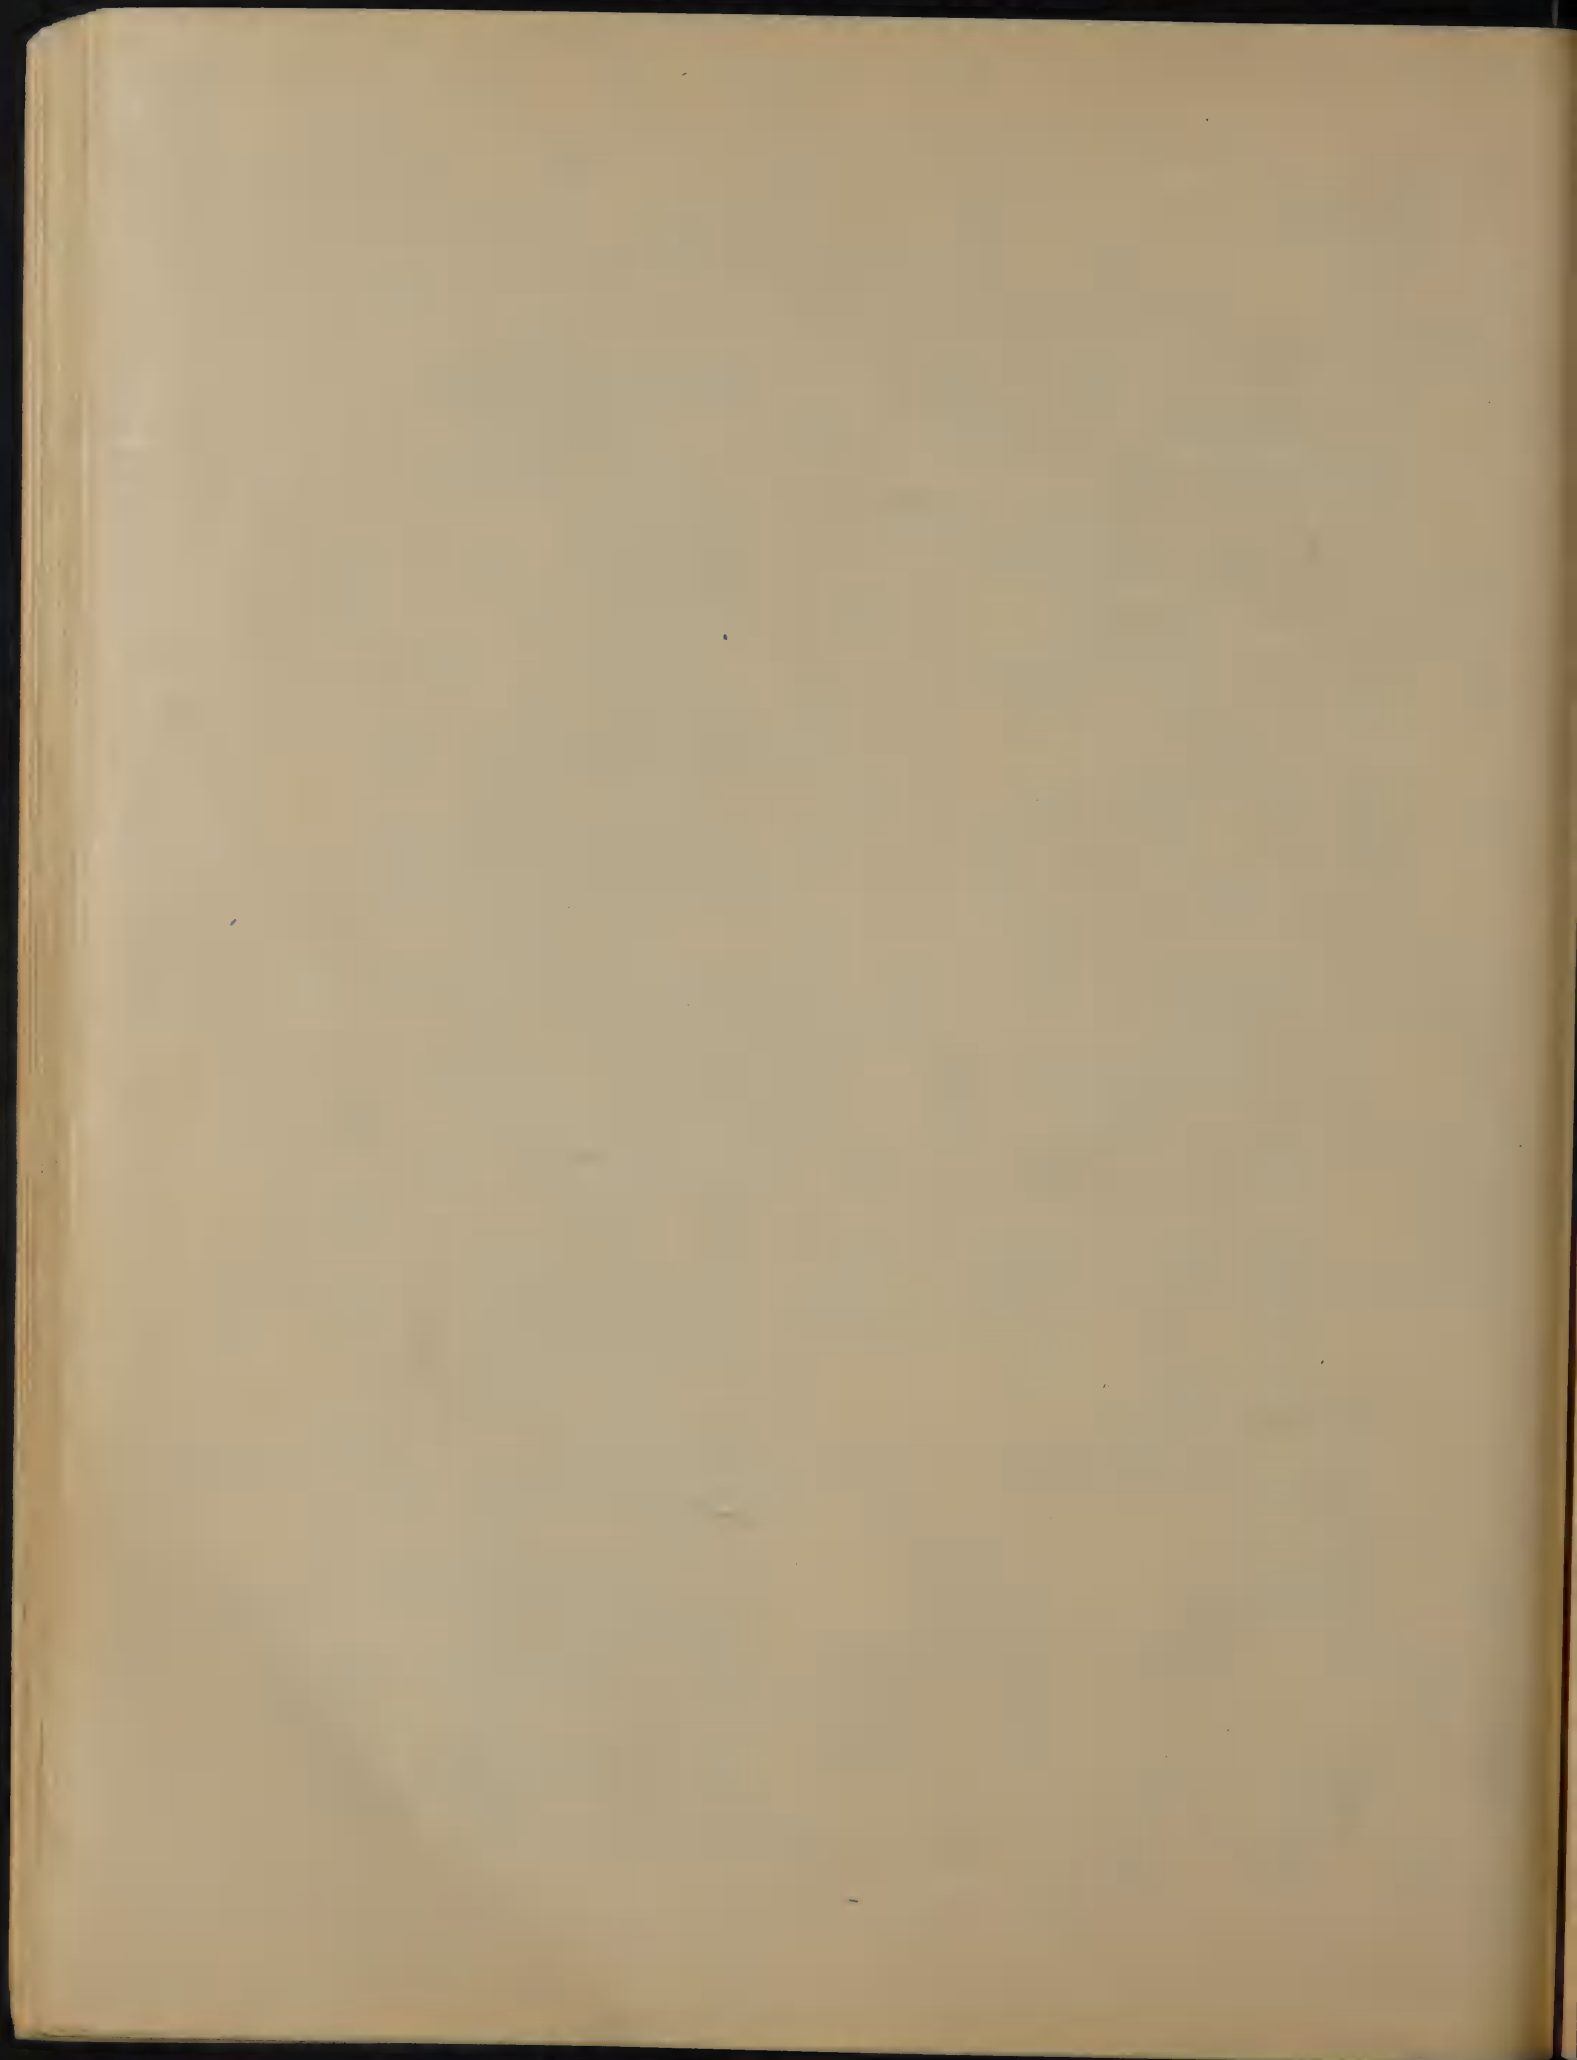

Always whizzing
To a date,
That's Donald Roth
In his V-8

XVI

A quiet little blonde is she
Answering to Ellen Lee,
She never causes any fuss
In assembly's with Mrs. Buss.

XVII

Now comes Darold Haines
The janitor of the class,
He likes to flirt with all the girls,
As with the broom he'll pass.

XVIII

Who likes a certain Kimball guy?
And calls him up each day,
This must be Deloris Mairose
What more can we say?

XIX

Carol Mauer a nice brunette
Seems rather quiet now,
But at the rate she's going
She'll get along somehow.

XX

Always covered with a smile
Happy as a lark,
That is Ruby Nightingale
She wins many a heart.

XXI

Now there's LaVonne
Her smiles full of joy,
We hear she's won the heart
Of a Senior boy.

XXII

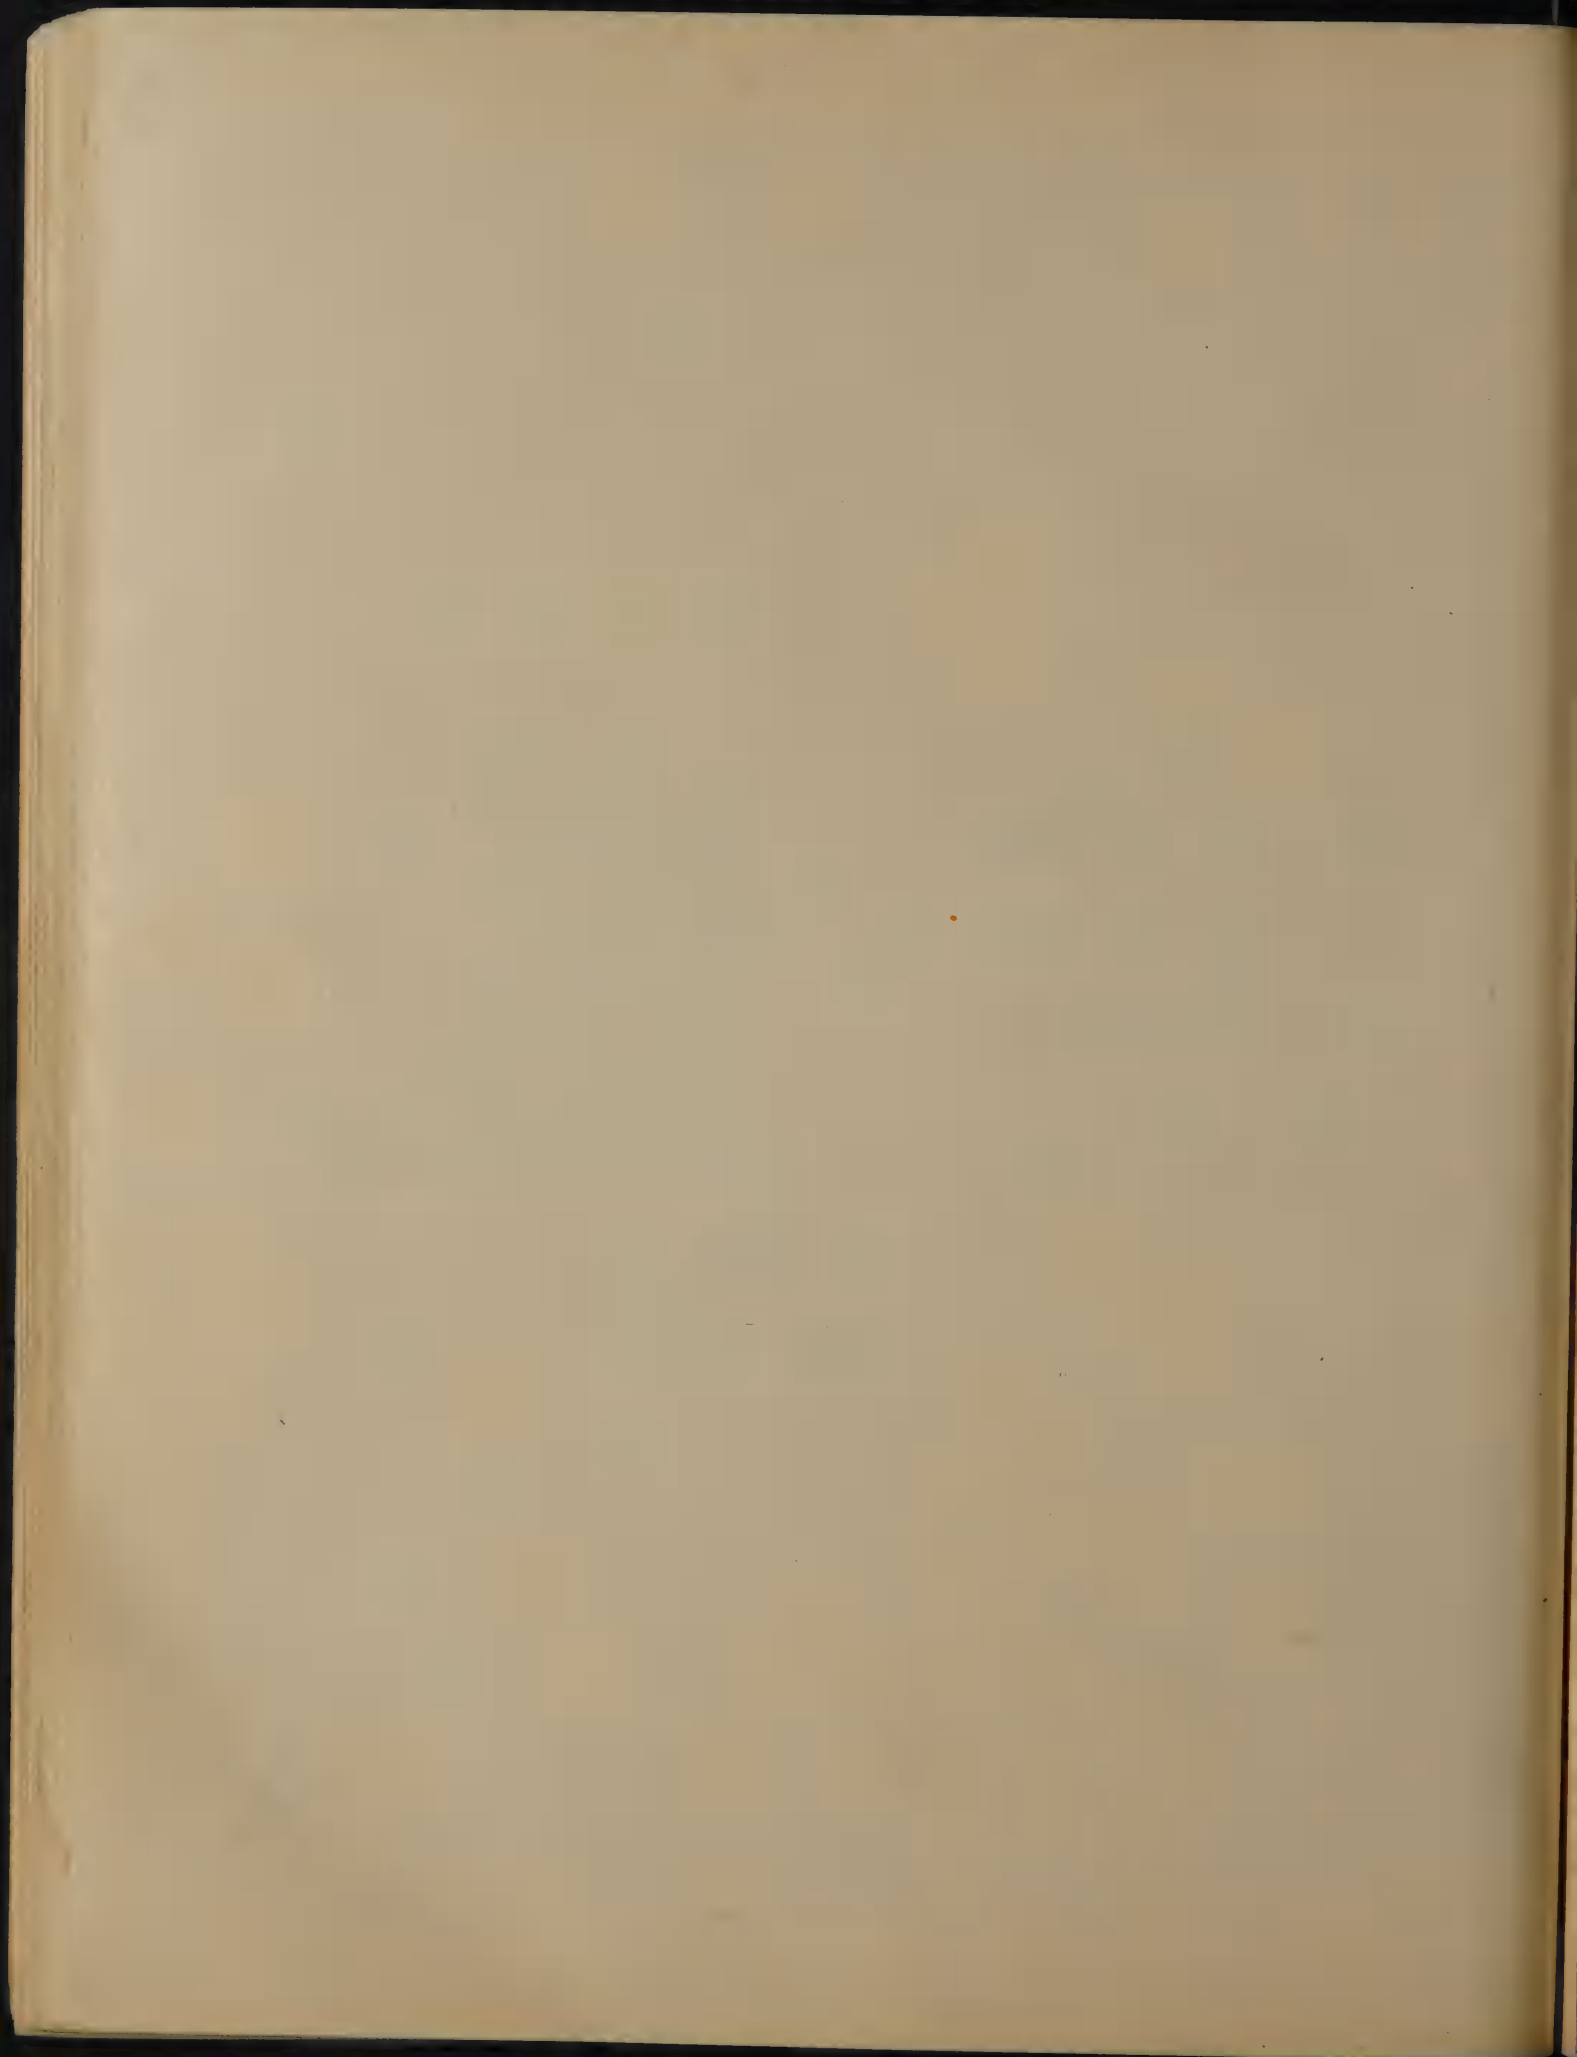

Evelyn Weirs is
Tall and thin,
Whenever you see her
She wears a grin.

XXIII

Eileen Sterrett is a fan
She sees every game she can.
Keeps her spirits light and brisk
List'ning to her favorite disc.

XXIV

Wears a smile
Is never dreary -
Worth your while -

PRIMARY ROOM

On the morning of September 2, 1946, twenty boys and girls tiptoed in to enroll in the primary room. There were thirteen in the first grade and seven in the second grade.

We had our first party on Holloween. Little visitors were invited that day.

On December 20, we had our Christmas party and exchanged gifts. That night the grades gave an operetta, "The Magi's Gift". The primary pupils were Christmas trees.

The girls in the room learned to tap. Everyone in the room played in the rhythm band which was led by Eugene Gales.

Our first grade is divided into two reading classes named Bluebirds and Robins. The second grade classes are Brownies and Blackbirds.

The children who came in so meekly will march out full of confidence shouting, "I passed."

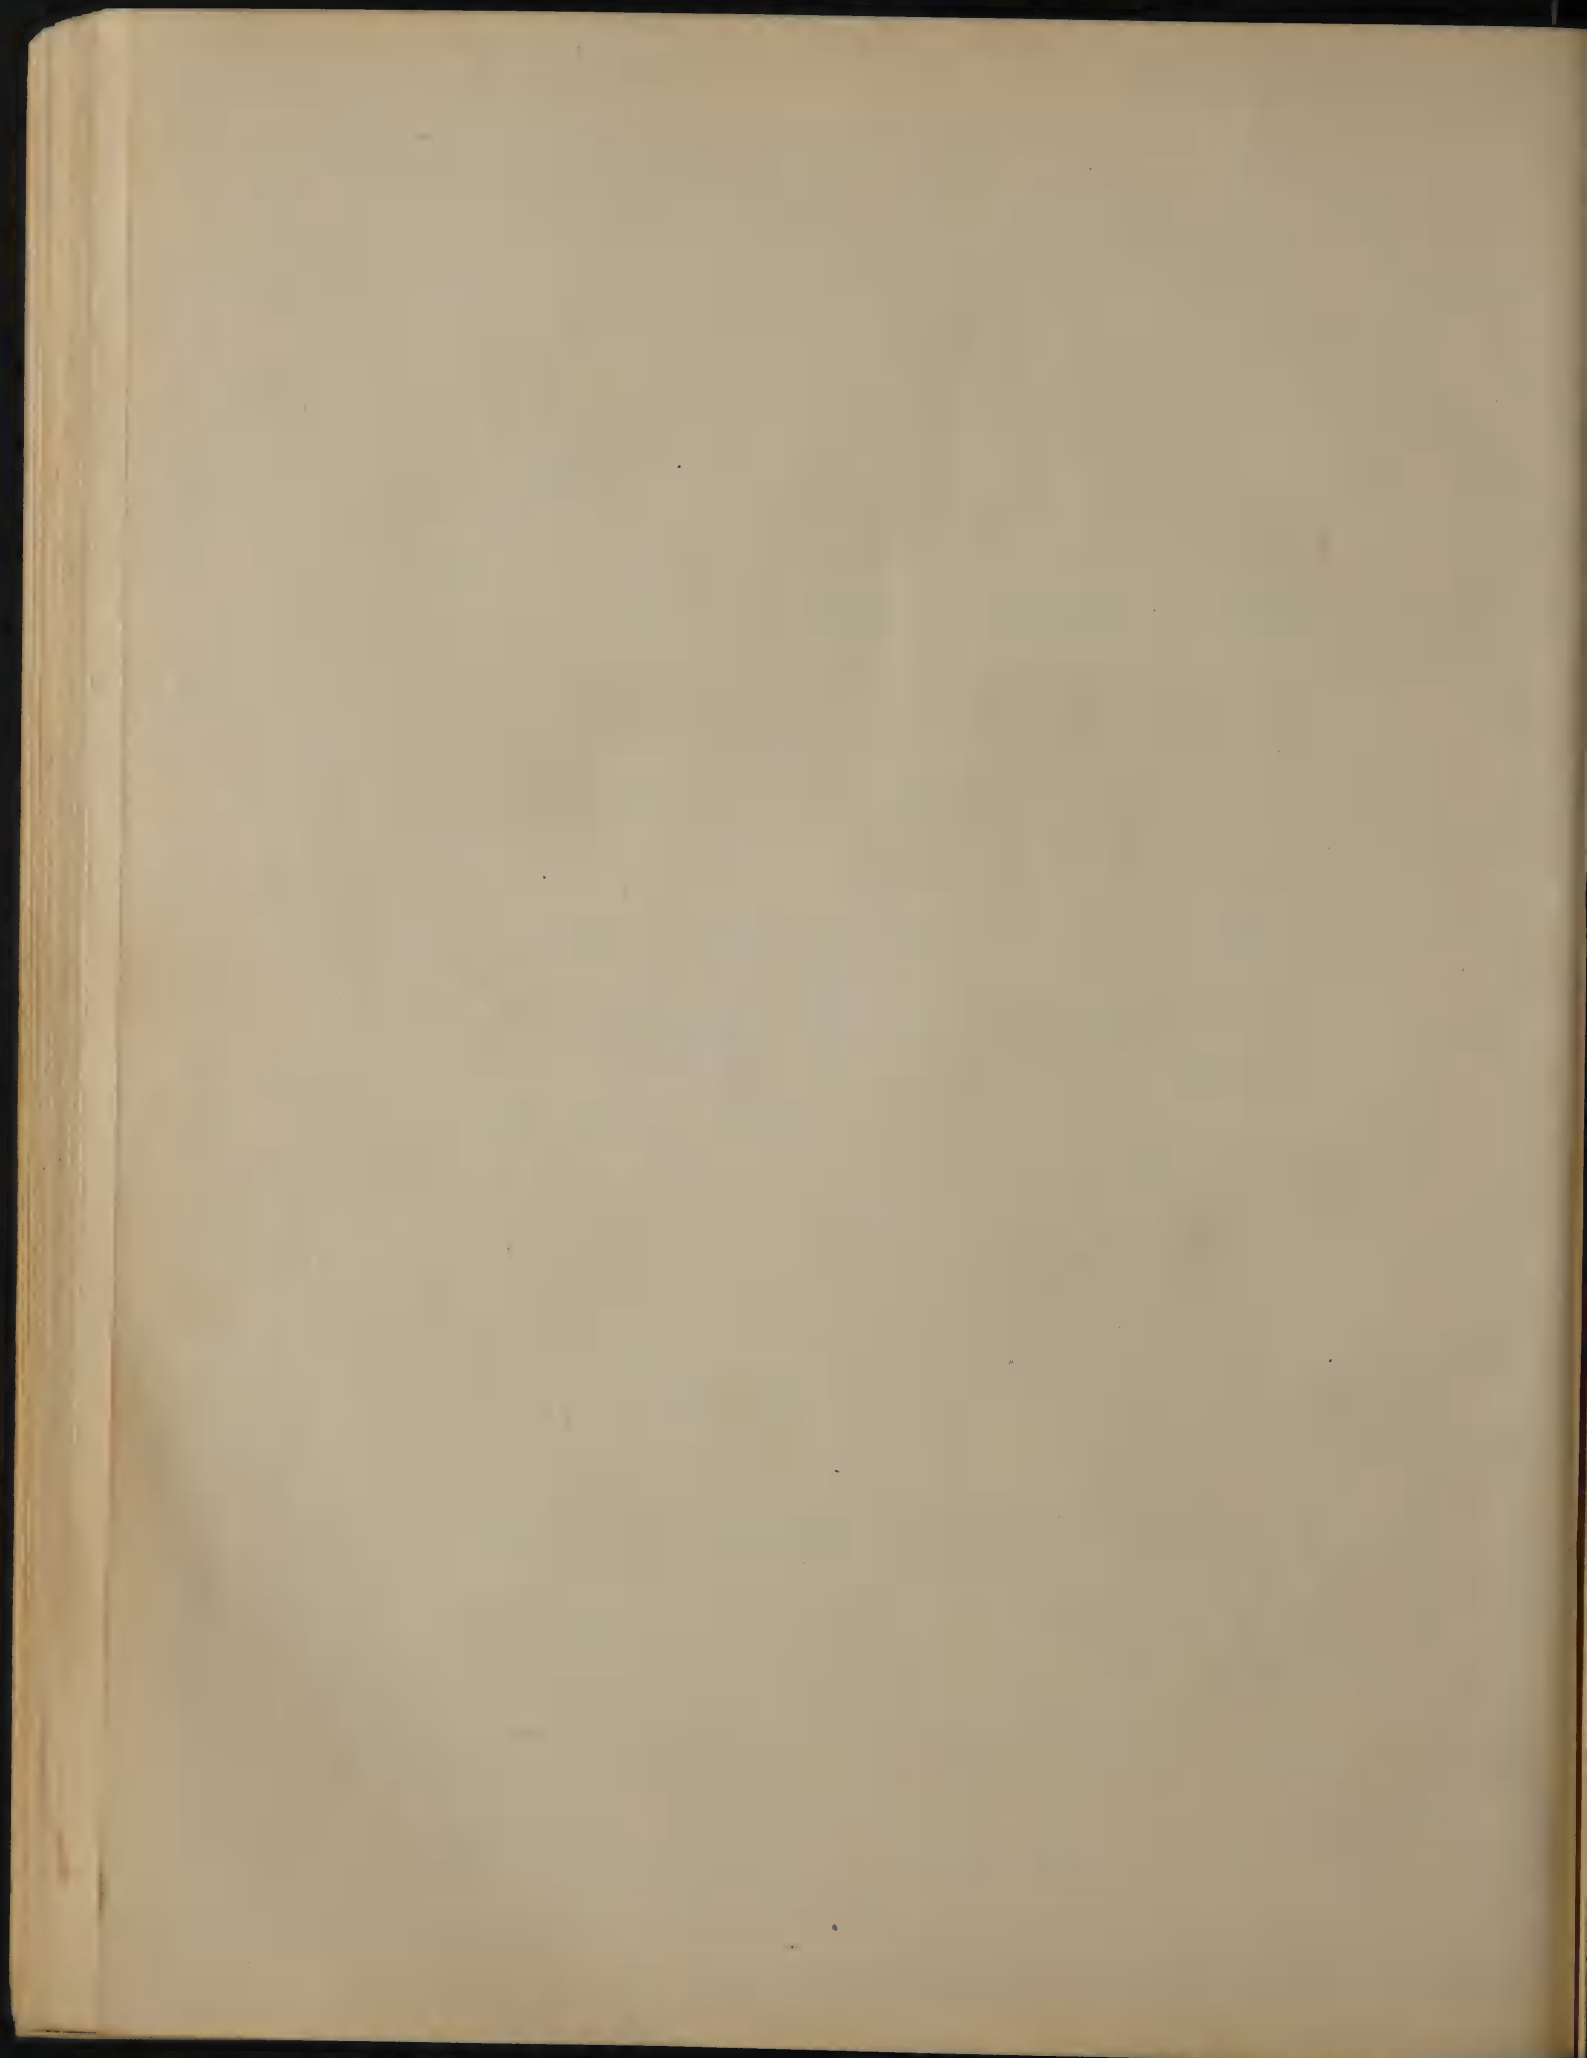

-*-

THIRD and FOURTH GRADES

The third grade carried out many projects in social studies this year, including a model farm and booklets were made covering various units.

The fourth grade made booklets covering their study of colonial life. Pupils from both grades enjoyed watching the growth of the plants on the window sill.

SEVENTH and EIGHTH GRADE

The folks in this room have been very busy all year, and still are. The eighth graders have been deep in their Civics course, as it was new to them, this semester. They had history the first semester which completed the unit.

A new member, Betty Briggs, a seventh grader, has been added. She came to White Lake from Mitchell. We lost a prominent seventh grader in the person of Alice Frink, who left White Lake and went to Wessington, where her mother is teaching.

The grade basketball team has made a tremendous showing this season, playing several out-of-town games, and winning over the Freshman team quite consistently.

The grade cheerleaders have added sparkle and enthusiasm to the contests with their yells and actions. The cheerleaders are Helen Galer, Ellen Galer, and Patty Huebl.

Our Y. C. L. has earned some money by selling refreshments at the basketball games, and plans to contribute to the movie projector being purchased by the school.

The group has enjoyed several class parties including celebrations of Halloween and Thanksgiving.

FIFTH and SIXTH GRADE

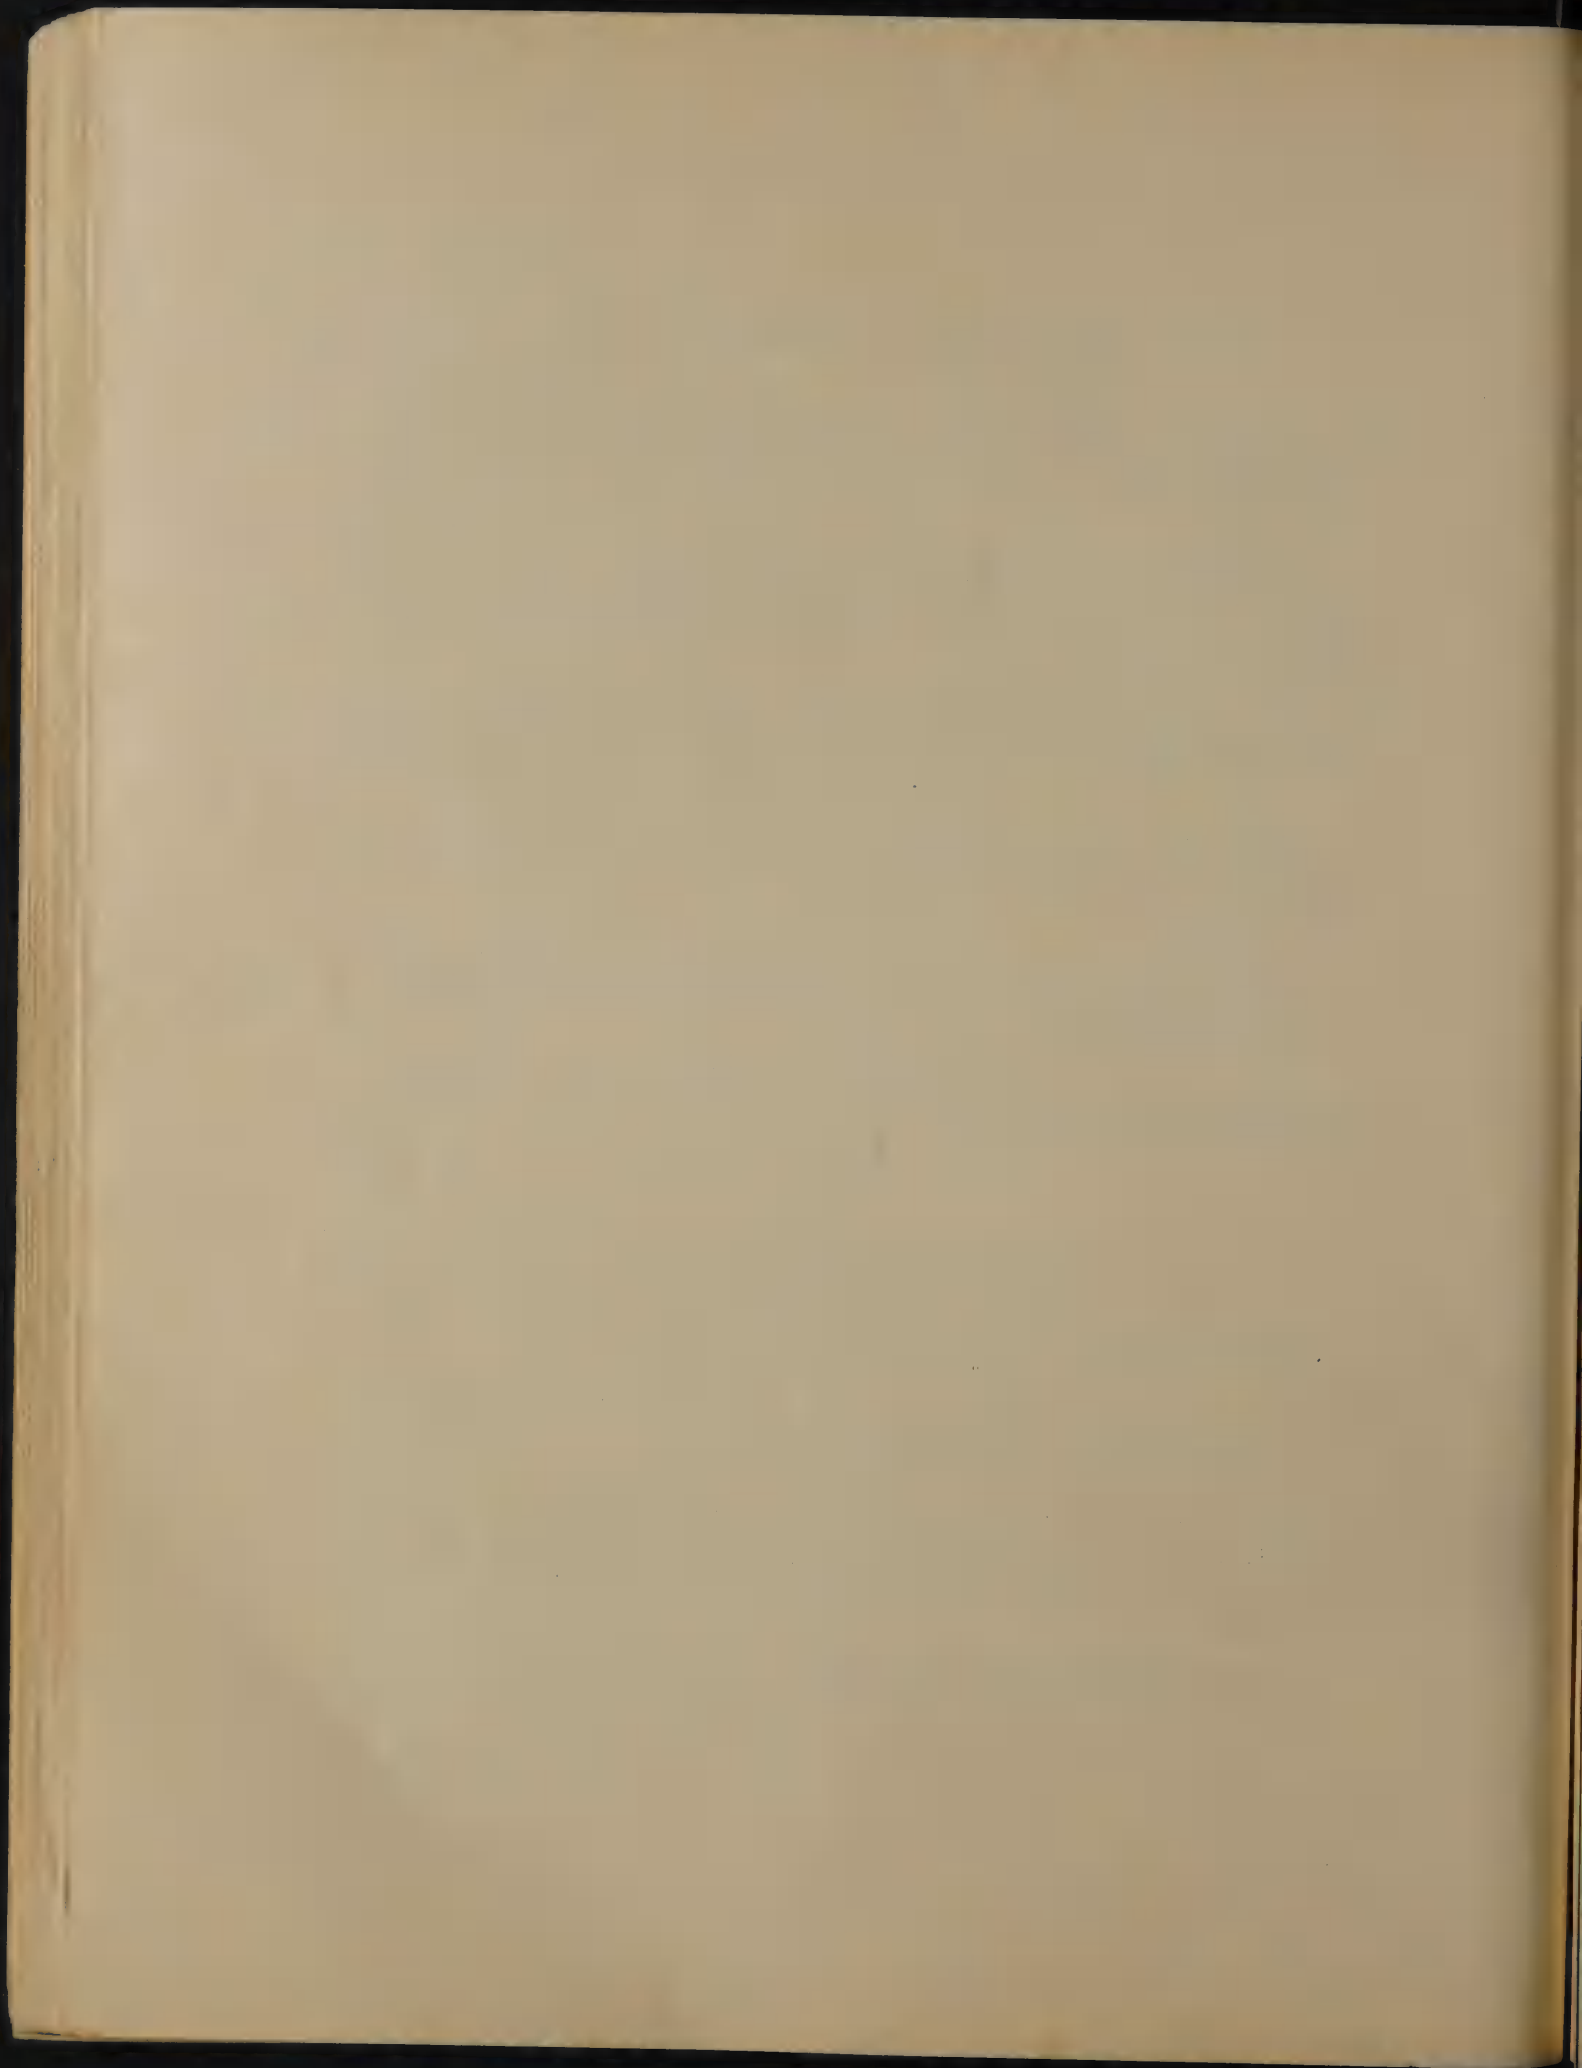

Our enrollment is twenty-eight. We have fifteen sixth graders and thirteen fifth graders.

The fifth and sixth grades this year have been busy following the motto, "Build the ladder on which we climb."

To make history more interesting the fifth and sixth graders made booklets on the countries they have studied. To make it easy for the pupils we have made maps with a sample of the grains and minerals we will find in each country.

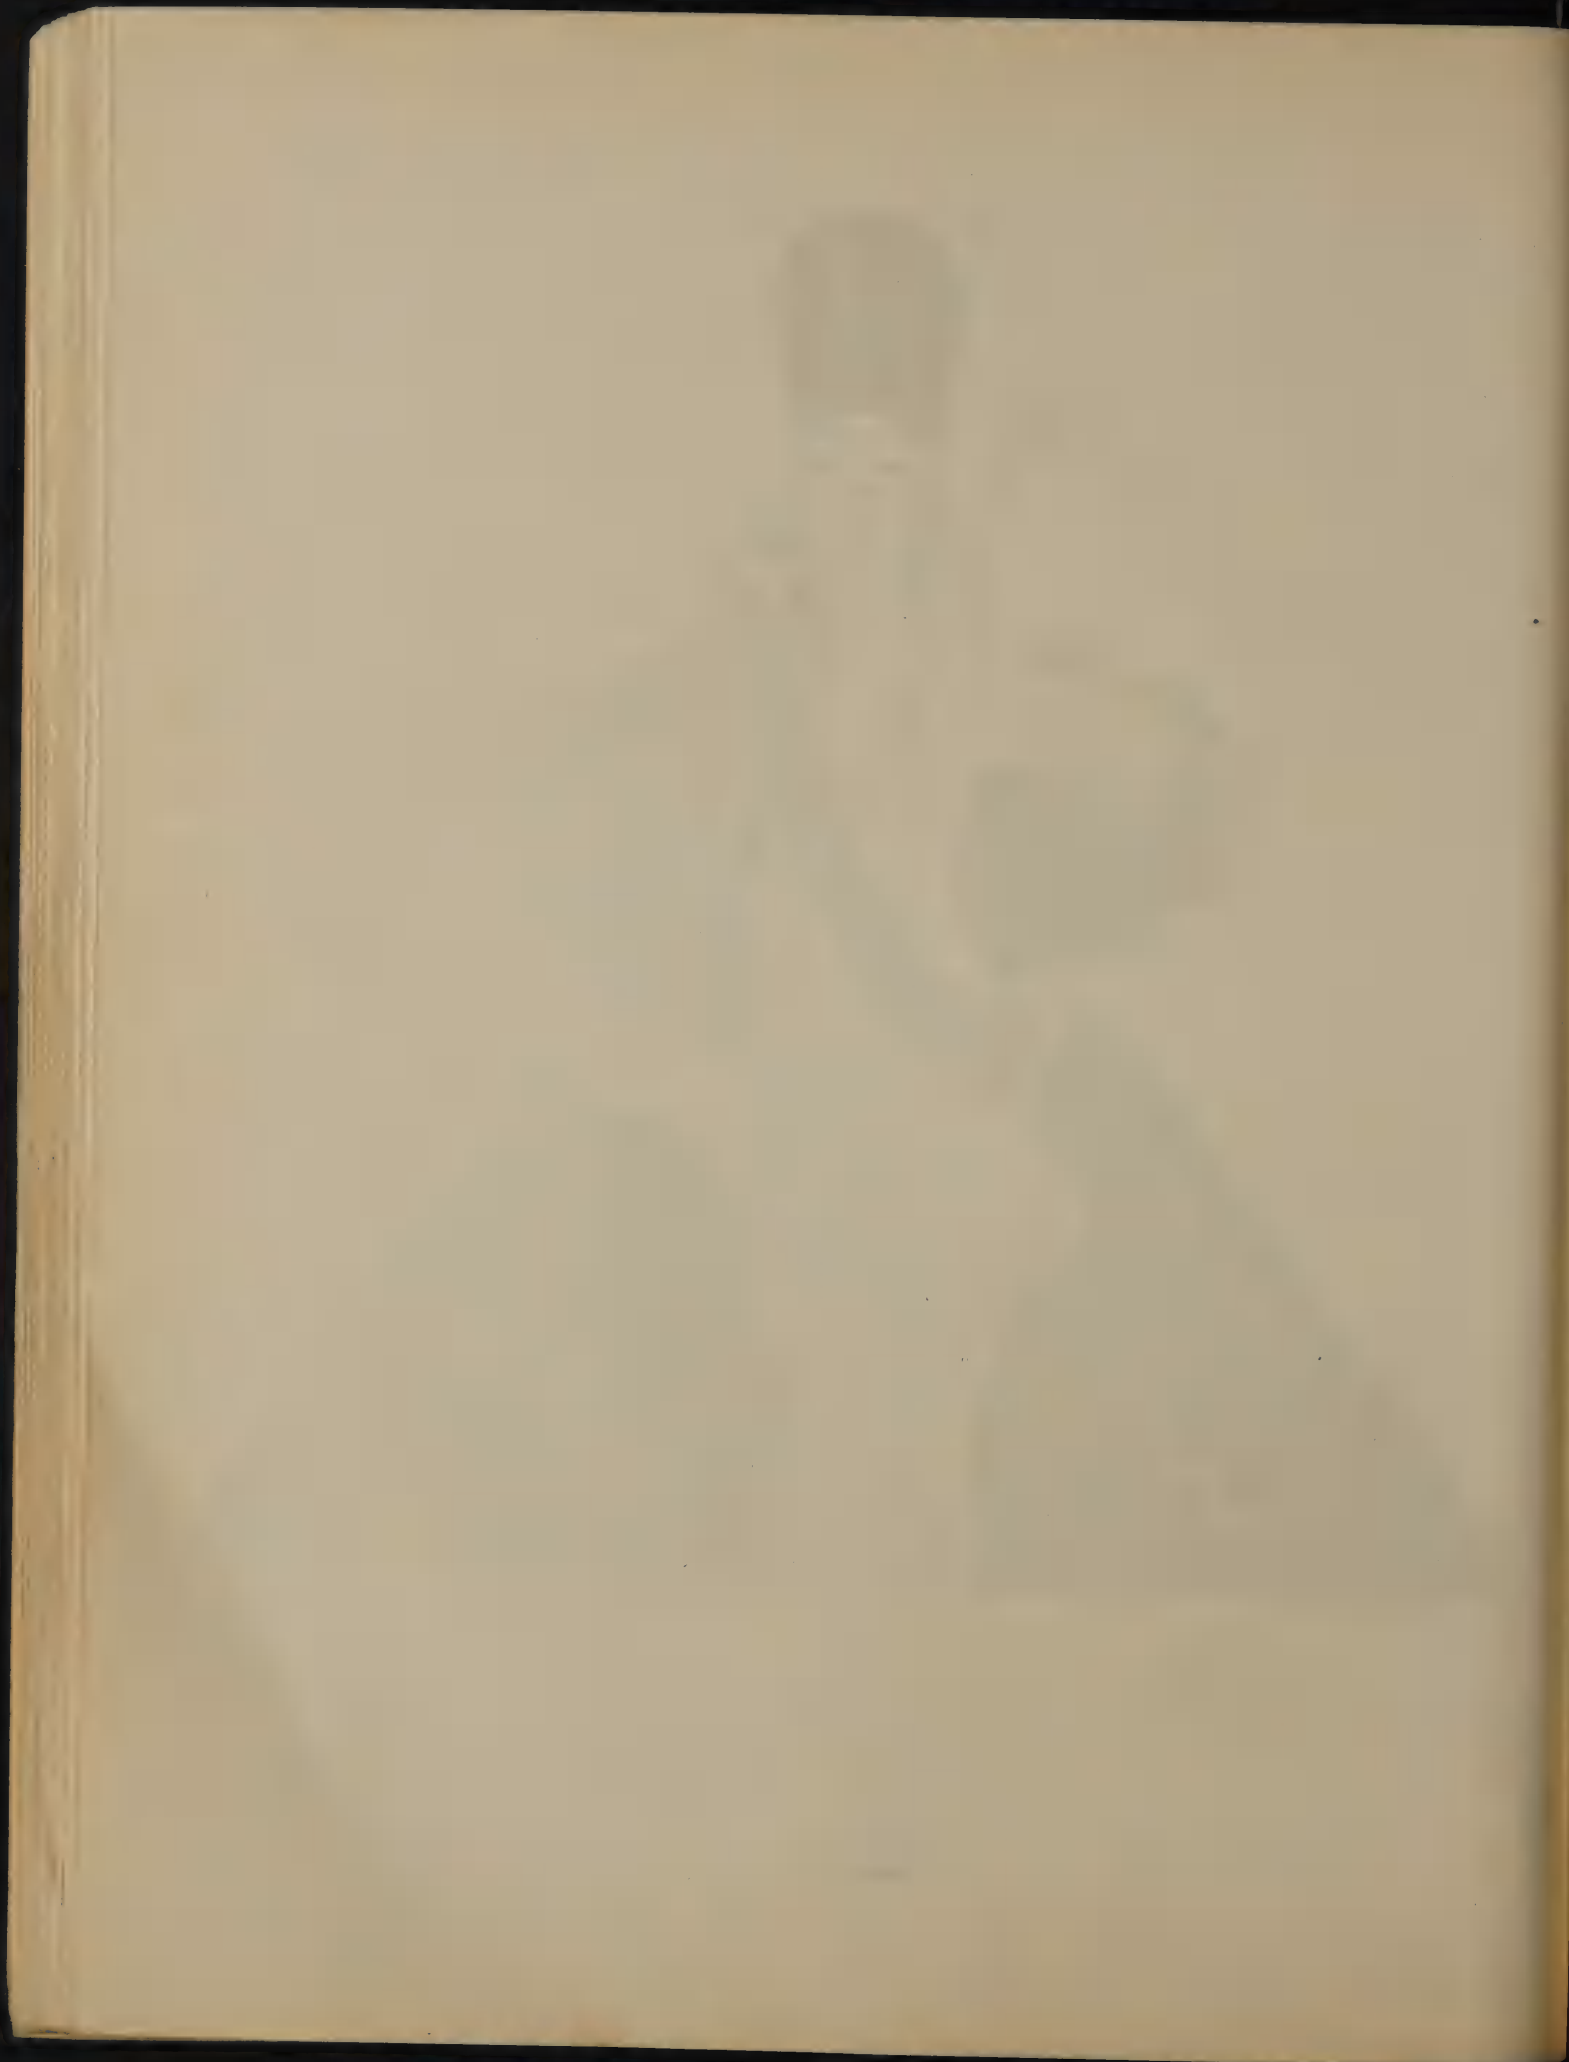

The boys have made wooden projects and the girls cloth projects for the exhibit in the spring.

GLEE CLUB

Under the direction of Lois Bates, the Girls Glee Club, consisting of twenty-four members, made its first public appearance with the rendition of two selections between acts of the Junior Play. These numbers were "Sylvia" and "If You Were the Only Girl in The World".

After the Christmas holidays, work began on an old English melody, "Oh, Dear, What Can the Matter Be" and the Negro spiritual "Goin' Home" which is arranged for the Mixed Chorus.

The Mixed Chorus composed of thirty-two voices, made its first public appearance at the Parent Teacher Association meeting in the month of April. Their vocal offerings were "Donkey Serenade" by Frimil, "Goin' Home" by Dvorak and "One Alone" by Sigmund Romberg.

Interest in the current songs of the day resulted in a fraction of the practice period being devoted to the popular ballads.

DECLAMATION

There was a lot of pride in the hearts of the White Lake High School students when their representative, James Mahoney, came home from the state contest at Huron College with the first prize. He had won a superior at the local eliminations, the district meet at Kimball and the regional conference at Platte. Last year Jim went to the Regional and got a second.

The other district contenders were Thelma Dean Hanten who brought home a second from the Oratory division. Margery Oltman, a novice in the poetry contest, received a good. Marjorie Bruggeman received a good in the Dramatic entries.

Declam was under the instruction of Miss Lois Bates.

First Row: Germaine Gales, Ruth Beutner, Doris Getty, Marjorie Bruggeman, Margaret Hettinger, and Norma Peters.

JOURNALISM

In an effort to keep an interested high school reading public informed, the Secretarial Practice class took out paper and pencil and covered the news and feature stories in White Lake High like a blanket. Interviews with the "big shots" of the class and the latest doing of the romantic twosomes plus news of the big activities filled the "Purple and White".

Second semester found the Senior Girls up to their ears in work on the annual, so the Junior Girls in Shorthand I class carried copy to the Standard office.

ANNUAL STAFF

There were scribbled notes, bits of news and a few flowery phrases with pictures to match around the Commercial room. Then scattered pages were assembled with care and the annual was put to bed. The Senior class, always the guiding light behind the Annual, breathed a sigh of relief.

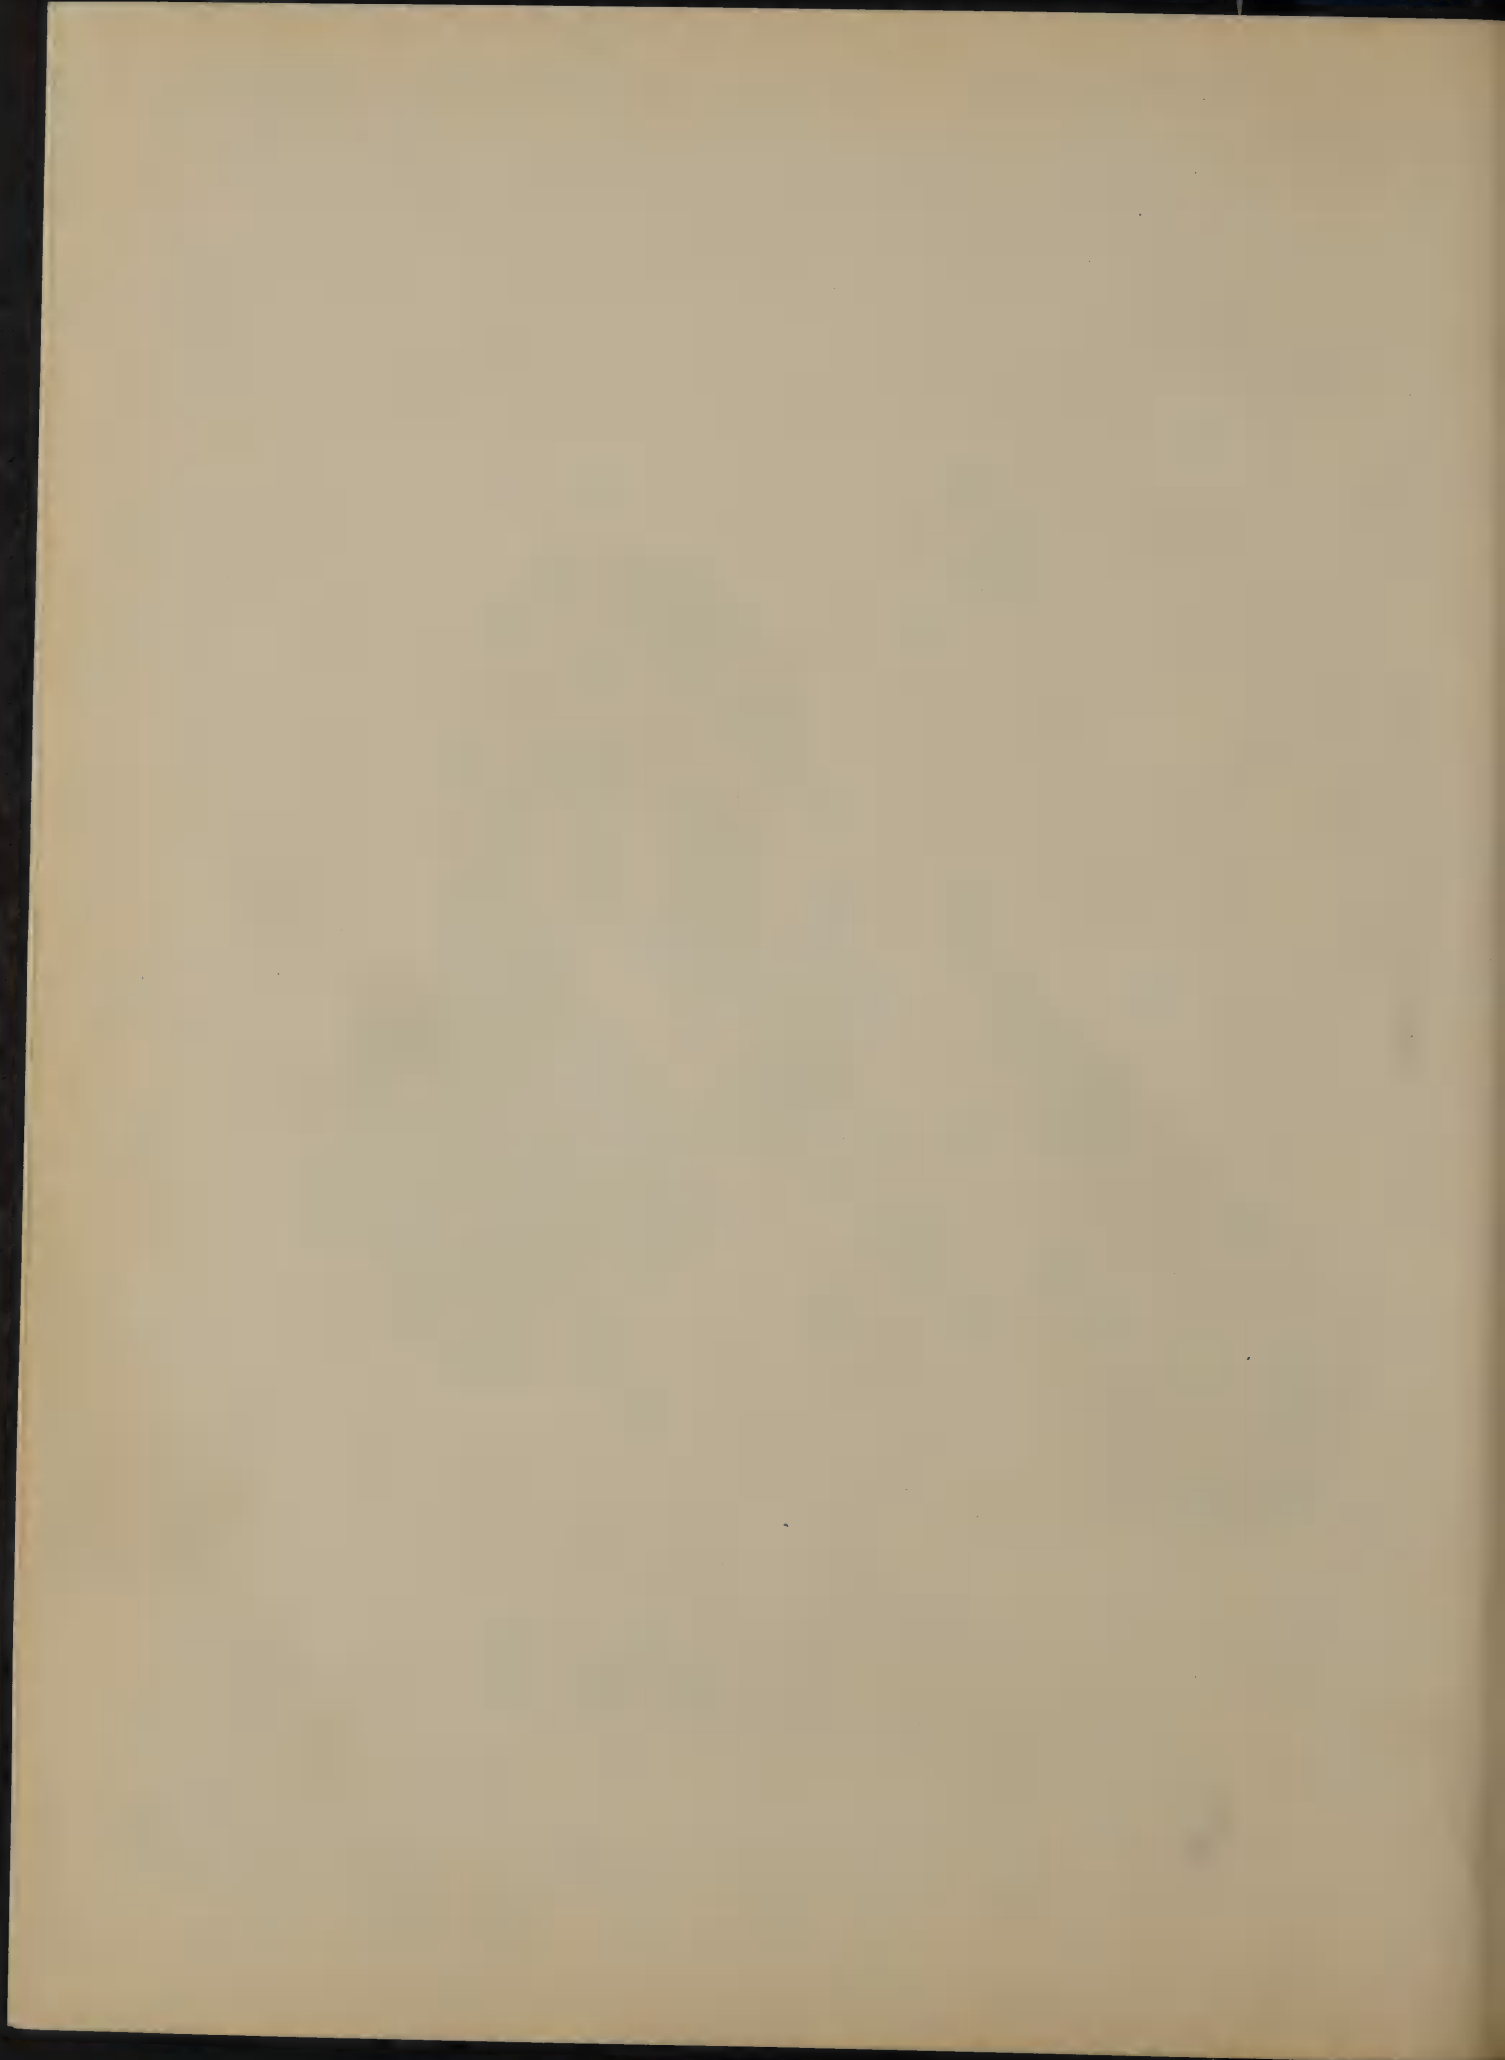

Many issues of school record have been produced entirely here at the school with photography and mimeographing done on the premises. This year the annual was to be lithographed which meant only the editing of the material, soliciting of subscribers and advertisers would fall to the seniors. Under the direction and instruction of Miss Bates, the work began in December and with the cooperation of everyone concerned was completed and mailed to the publishers in February.

BASKETBALL

The basketball season of 1946-47 has proved one of the most successful seasons the White Lake Indians have ever played.

The year was off to a good start when a dance was sponsored by the Athletic Department of the high school, on Oct. 4th to raise money for the new suits.

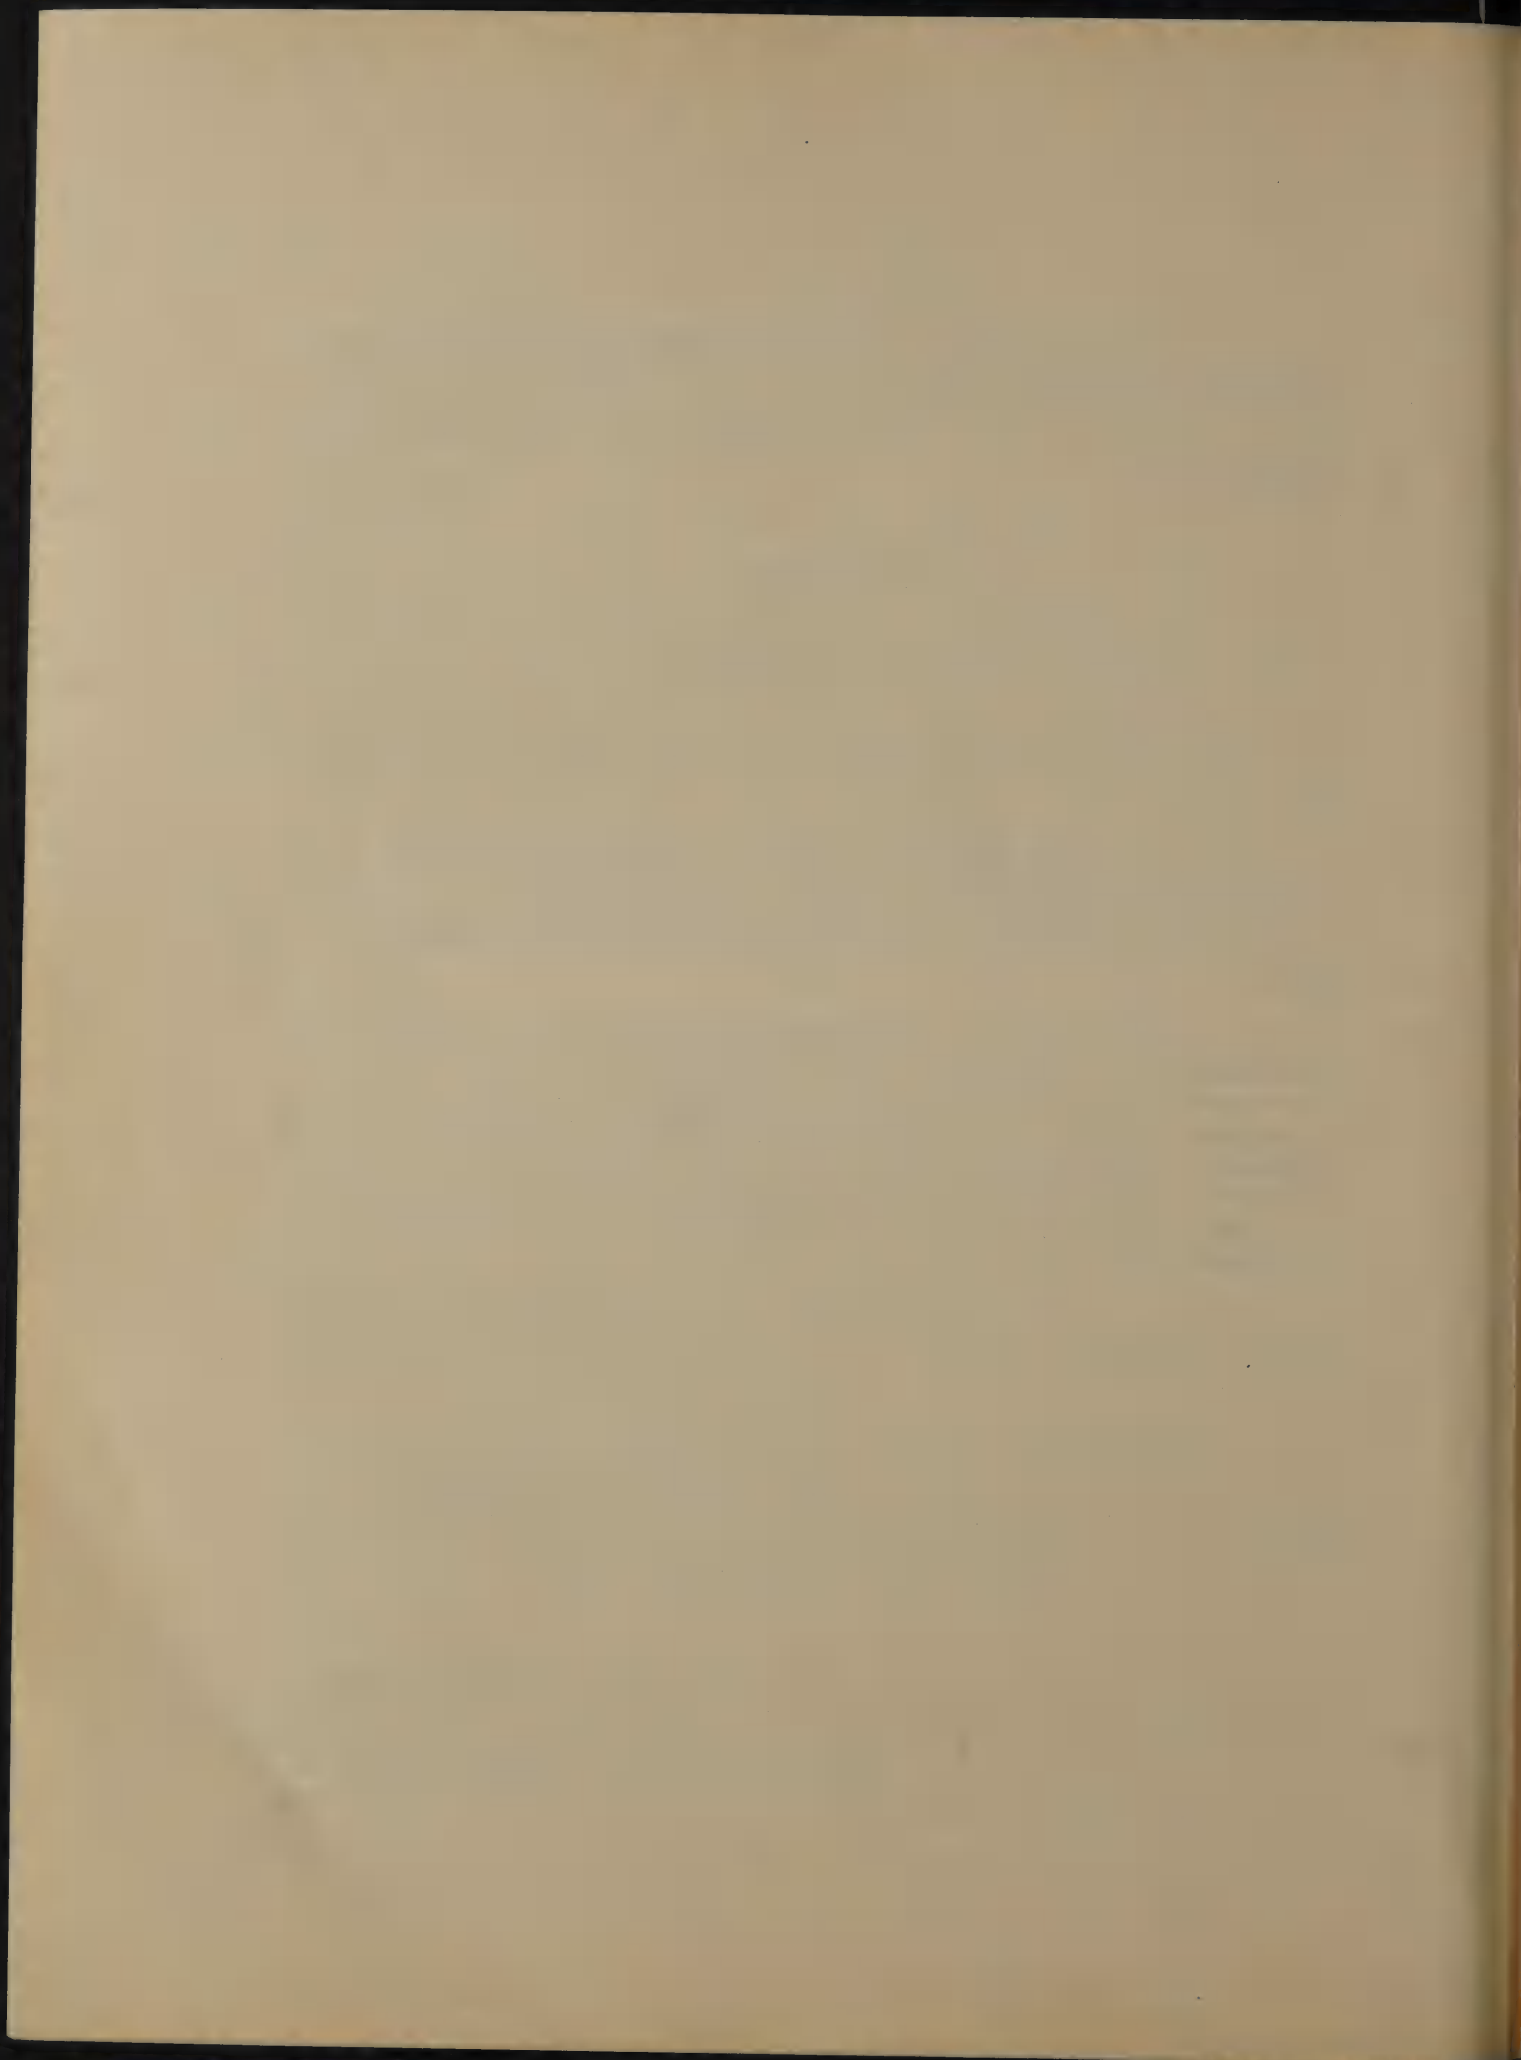

Under the capable guidance of Coach Howard Schoff, who is in his second year of coaching on the faculty of White Lake High, White Lake won the opening game with Pukwana. The continued teamwork resulted in only 4 defeats out of the fifteen games. There are five games left in our basket ball schedule.

On December 17-18-19 the Conference Tournament was held in Kimball. White Lake lost to Kimball in the Championship game, beating Pukwana and Ft. Thompson in the preliminaries. White Lake Indians played in the invitational tourney held in Emery on New Years Day. The first game resulted in a victory over Emery. The final game was lost to Bridgewater. Loren Haines received a metal for good sportsmanship at this tournament. The final tournament, in which White Lake will take part this year will be the District Tournament. It will be held in Mt. Vernon on February 18th to the 21st.

The basket ball boys and cheerleaders were honored by a dinner given by Mrs. Galer and Mrs. Hanson. The first ten were feted to a steak dinner at the Nick Hanten residence.

The high point man of the year was Loren Haines with a total of 221 points during the fifteen games, which gives him an average of 10.5 points per game. The averages of the first seven are as follows: Loren Haines-220 ; Delos Hopkins-160 ; Charles Graham-72; Anthony Hanten-68; Teddy Hanten-68; Tom Hanson-59; Teddy Schone-47. White Lake has 722 points which averages 35 points per game. The opponents have 609 points.

Next year's basket ball team will suffer the loss of five players, from the first seven, with the graduation of this year's Senior Class. These are; Delos Hopkins, Loren Haines, Teddy Schone, Teddy Hanten, and Anthony Hanten. Prospects for next year's team looks good, with many of the second team berths to be filled by new material coming in from the grades, and the laurels of the first team still upheld by such veterans as; Graham, Hanson, Mahoney, Neilson, Shottenkirk, and others.

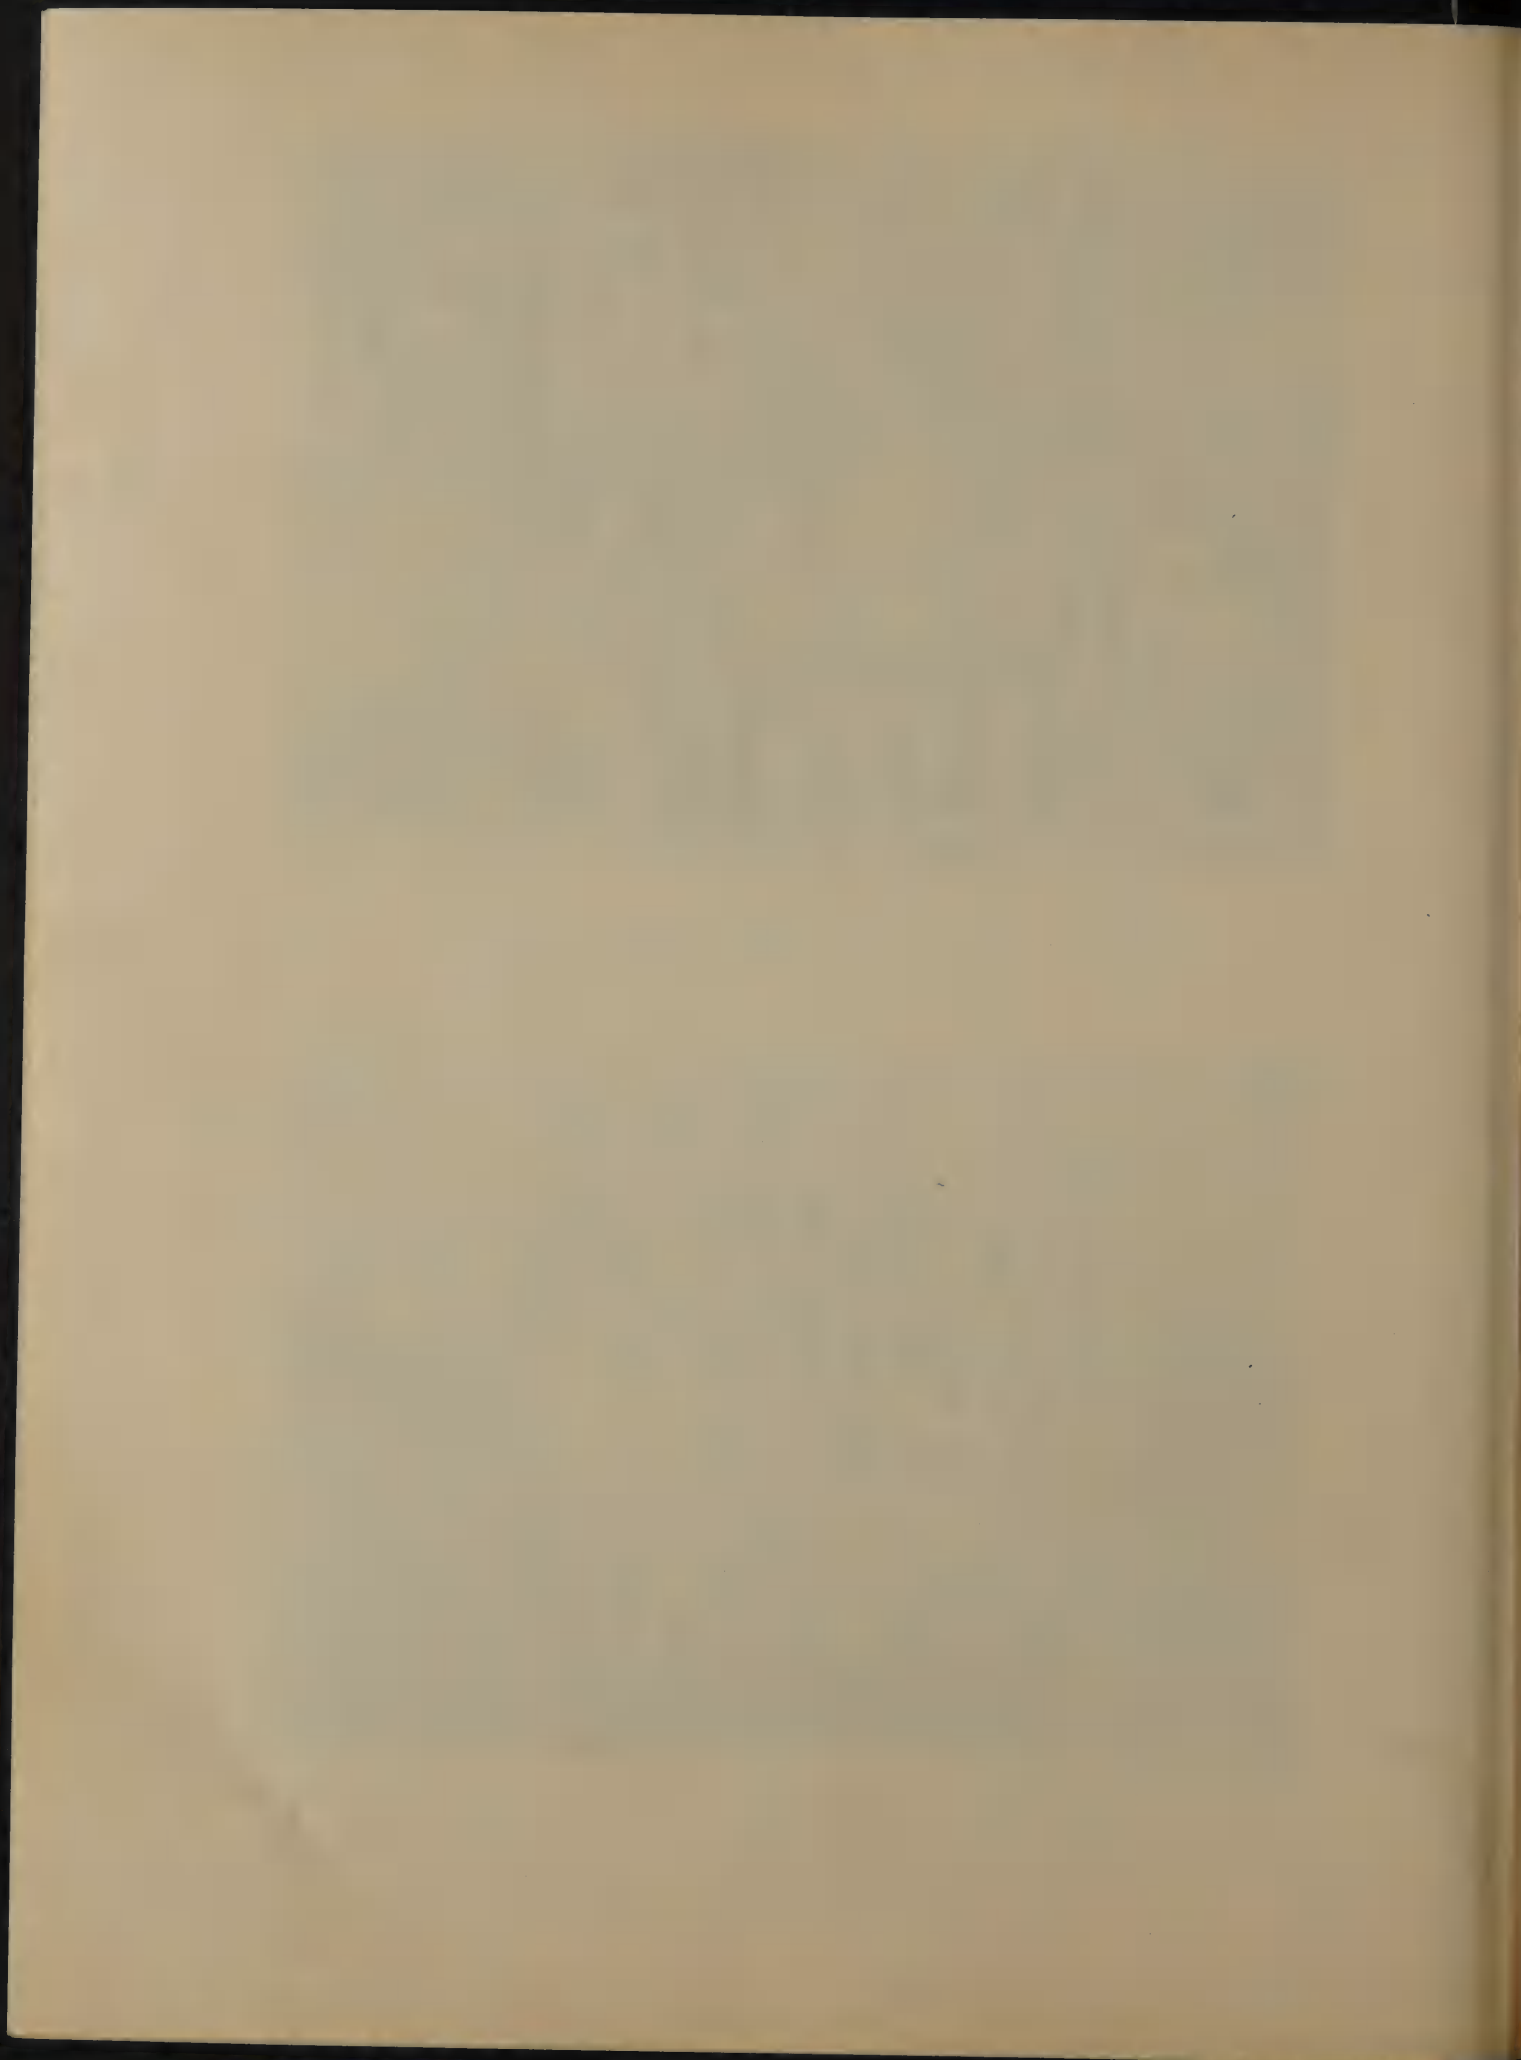

GRADE BASKETBALL TEAM

THANKS FOR THE MEMORIES

Thanks for the memories
Of good old White Lake High,
Every gal and guy,
Of dreamy looks,
And English books,
The Rumors that would fly -
How lovely it was.

Thanks for the memories
Of studies we were spared,
Quizzes that we shared,
Those games we won
And all the fun,
The crazy pranks we dared -
How lovely it was.

Many's the time that we day-dreamed
The time that we spent on our studies
We had some very good buddies
We've been carefree
Since '43

So -- thanks for the memories
And in a year or three
Maybe there will be,
Some more Slick-chicks
And Dead-eyed Dicks,
Who'll use our recipe -
We thank you, so much!

JOKES! JOKES! JOKES! JOKES!

Mrs. Rauch: "Tommy, give me two pronouns."

Tommy: "Who me?"

Mrs. Rauch: "That's right, Tommy good work."

Charlie Graham: "You're an honest lad, but it was a $10 bill I lost not 10 ones."

Larry: "I know it was a $10 bill I picked up, but the last time I found one the owner didn't have any change."

Jimmy calls me his dream girl--said Lois, but he doesn't pay any attention to me when he's awake.

Mrs. Buss: "When water becomes ice, what is the greatest change that takes place?"

Deloris: "The price."

Mavis: "We've been going to school now for four weeks."

Norma Jean: "Is that all? It seems like a month."

Mr. Galer: "Didn't you have a brother in this class last year?"

Dwight: "No, sir. I'm taking the course over again."

Mr. Galer: "Extraordinary resemblance nevertheless!"

Bob: "Dad, we learned at school today that animals have a new fur every winter."

"Be quiet, your mother is in the next room," said his Dad.

Jack: "No woman ever takes another woman's advice about dresses."

Margie: "Naturally. You don't ask the enemy how to win the war."

Mrs. Rauch was upset because Henry and Harold were late. Fuming, she said as they finally came in, "You should have been here at nine!" "Why" they asked. "What happened?"

Margie O. "I wonder if Jack loves me?"

Shirley: "Of course he does. Why should he make you an exception?"

Miss Bates: "What's on the menu today?"

Norma: "Oh, we have hundreds of good things."

"Fine!" What are they?"

"Beans."

Loren: "Do you believe in clubs for women?"

Coach: "Yes, if every other form of persuasion fails."

Clem said Mr. Galer "What is one-fourth and one-fourth?"

"I don't know exactly," replied Clem "but it isn't enough to worry about."

Maxine G. "What a glorious painting! I wish I could take those lovely colors home with me."

Thelma Dean: "You will--you're sitting on my paint box."

"At last" said Miss Bates "I have written something that will be accepted by the first magazine it is sent to."

"What is it?" asked Miss Rankin

"A check for a year's subscription."

Caroline: "My boy-friends face fell a mile when he first saw Grand Canon."

Bonnie: "Disappointed?"

Caroline: "I pushed the dope."

Mr. Hilton: "So you desire to be my son-in-law?"

Bob: "Heck no But if I marry your daughter I don't see how I can get out of it."

During a basketball game Teddy Schone a player (pointing out other team-members) said, "That center is our best man."

Lucy: "Oh, darling this is so sudden."

Coach: "Will you tell me why you look at your watch so often?"

Germaine: "I was afraid that you wouldn't have time to finish your interesting lecture."

Said the toothbrush to the toothpaste in a moment of delight. "I'll give you a big squeeze when we meet on the bridge of tonight."

DP. "Can you draw a straight line with a ruler?"

Doris Ann: "Why of course."

DP. "That's funny, I use a pencil."

Hazel: "Sakes alive, I don't believe no woman could be so fat."

Jack: "What did you say?"

Hazel: "Why in this paper it tells about an English woman who lost two thousand pounds."

Rev. Strait: "What would your father say if he knew you were fishing on Sunday?"

Delos: "Ask him. He's right around the bend."

Johnney: "Doctor if there's anything wrong with me, don't frighten me half to death by giving it a long scientific name. Just tell me what it is in plain English."

Doctor: "Well, Johnney, to be frank, you're just plain lazy."

Johnney: "Thank you, and now give me the scientific name for it, so I can tell them at home."

Coach to players: "And remember that basketball develops individuality, initiative, and leadership. Now get out on that floor and do exactly what I've told you to do."

Mr. Schone: "My boy, when I see how you spend it, I'm afraid that you don't know the value of money."

Teddy: "Sure I do. It's just about half of what it was a few years ago."

Miss Dunn: to a little boy riding in a streetcar who had been sniffing loudly for several blocks. "Little boy, do you have a handkerchief?"

"Yes, ma'am", he replied, "but I never lend it to strangers."

Mr. Haines went into the store and asked the price of a peach.

"Fifteen cents," said Larry.

Mr. Haines handed him two dimes. "Keep the change," he said. "I stepped on a grape as I came in."

Johnney came home with a very unsatisfactory report card.

"Oh dear," said his mother. "What is the trouble?"

"There isn't any trouble," said Johnney, "You know how things always come down after the holidays."

Lovemaking hasn't changed much in 2500 years, Greek maidens used to sit and listen to a lyre all evening, too.

"That clerk seems a hard worker."

"Yes, that's his specialty."

"What working hard?"

"No, seeming to."

Maxine M. "Aren't men funny? That man over there smiled at me and I winked at him. But ever since you sat down he's been a complete deadpan."

Jean: "Maybe because he's my boy-friend."

Lucy went to the bank and asked for a new check book. "I've lost the one you gave me yesterday," she said. "But it doesn't matter. I took the precaution of signing all the checks as soon as I got it--so, of course, it won't be any use to anyone else."
